Today Ladies' $10 Sale of Spring Suits

Wednesday—A Tremendous Sale of Lace Scarfs, Shams, Center Pieces & Doilies

1,000 Drummer's Samples of High Grade Goods at LESS THAN ONE-FOURTH REGULAR PRICE

From a well known New York importer we bought his drummer samples and small lots of Spachtel, Battenburg and net applique scarfs, shams, etc. Some of them are slightly soiled, some of them a little misused, others brand new, clean, crisp goods of the highest class. We have divided this entire purchase into several lots:

We will sell all the scarfs and shams in the drawn and thread work that were imported to sell at $2.50 in one lot of each..... 75c

All the scarfs and shams, center pieces, tray cloths, etc. that were imported to sell from $1.00 to $1.50 a piece, go in one lot at each..... 50c

All the regular seventy-five cent scarfs, shams, center pieces, etc., go at each..... 25c

All the 50c scarfs, shams, doilies, etc., in this lot are many of the new Swiss thread doilies, go at, each..... 15c

All the regular 25c and 35c doilies in Spachtel and net work—go in two lots—at, each only..... 5c-10c

These goods will be sold on our main floor bargain squares. On account of their superb quality and the ridiculous prices at which they are going to be sold we recommend an early call.

Great Sale of Ribbons

Most wonderful ribbon bargains we ever offered. Entire wholesale millinery stock at less than half price

Huge bargain squares piled high with the greatest assortment of ribbons you ever beheld.

There are ribbons up to 12 inches wide, all silk gauze ribbons, white and black 6-inch moire ribbons, fancy stripe, satin ribbons, etc. Regardless of former value we are selling these ribbons, at, a yard..... 2c

10 inches wide ribbon, black and all colors, per yard, 10c.

All silk ribbon, many in this great lot worth up to 50c, at, per yard, 15c

Special attention is directed to THURSDAY'S MILLINERY SALE $2 Trimmed Street Hats, 25c

SCHMOLLER & MUELLER
1313 FARNAM ST

THE PIANO MAKER

PIANO-MAKING combines the highest in science—art—mechanics. Handsome woods—designs—finishing—make the instrument beautiful. To make it strong carefully selected—seasoned and matched material is used. To give it a lasting tone—full of power and charm—demands a thorough blending of science and mechanics.

The Schmoeller & Mueller piano is an example of art—science—mechanics—so successfully united that an instrument ranking among the best is the result. It is hand made—in our own factory—and awaits your inspection among the many other standard makes we are showing.

Some Bargains

THESE are slightly used pianos finished in walnut—mahogany—oak and rosewood—and completely overhauled in our factory. You can depend upon them as great bargains.

Hello, is this Storz Brewing Co.? Wish you would send me an extra case of Blue Ribbon Beer today—expect company tonight and they will be terribly disappointed if we can't treat them to Blue Ribbon—they all like it so well. Now be sure to send it.

By the way—came near forgetting—Mrs. N. wants you to send her a case also, but she would prefer a smaller bottle—you have pint bottles also, haven't you? All right.

You don't need to thank me—I'm only too glad to recommend Blue Ribbon. It cannot be too highly praised. Goodbye.

HAVE YOU SEEN IT IS IT ALIVE!

It Moves! It Seems to Breathe! It Smokes Bennett's Tobacco!

The "THING" may be seen in the 16th street window with a barrel of tobacco packages beside it.

We have begun a grand guessing contest covering ten handsome prizes—everyone of them is part of a smoker's outfit or something that every smoker likes to possess.

First prize is a beautiful Turkish pipe. Second is a box of 10 cigars.

Third an Amber cigar holder.

And so on to the tenth prize, which is a pound of Horseshoe chewing tobacco. You are asked to guess the number of packages of tobacco in the barrel. It costs you nothing to guess; it does not even involve a purchase, and it is free to you every time you feel like making a guess. The barrel contains a certain number of packages; nobody knows how many except Miss Louise E. Bennett, and she won't tell. She wrote the figure, after counting the packages, and handed the secret in a sealed envelope into the hands of Hon. G. M. Hitchcock of the World-Herald. He can't tell. It's up to you to guess and win a prize. Contest closes on June 15. Come and get contest cards at cigar counter.

Do you ride horse back

We are showing an unusually varied assortment of Whitman and English riding saddles for ladies astride and gentlemen. These saddles are made of the finest pigskin and they are the very best in quality of leather, style and finish that have ever been brought to this market.

Saddles, $4.50 to $40.00.

There is such a thing as fitting a saddle to a horse, just as there is to a hat to a man. If the saddle is easy on the horse and the rider and has the style, finish and last-ness, then it is a perfect saddle. You can't get it anywhere else.
