

COURT ENJOINS THE WAITERS

Report of Anthracite Coal Strike Commission Receives Judicial Recognition.

OMAHA JUDGES BASE THEIR ORDER ON IT

Waiters Are Restrainted from Passing Unfair Cards Within Three Hundred Feet of Entrances to Places of Business.

For the first time since it was rendered the report of the Anthracite Coal Strike Commission has received judicial recognition and has been accepted as setting forth a principle which will be recognized as the law with reference to strikes and matters growing out of them.

The order prayed for asked that the defendants be enjoined from passing cards declaring the restaurants of the plaintiffs unfair, from congregating at or near the places of business of the employers for the purpose of interfering with the persons who desired to patronize the houses, from causing the people employed by the plaintiffs to cease work by threats or intimidation.

From Coal Strike Report.

"What is popularly known as the boycott (a word of evil omen and unhappy origin) is a form of coercion by which a combination of many persons seek to work their will upon a single person, or upon a few persons by compelling others to abstain from social or beneficial business intercourse with such person or persons.

JURORS IN OMAHA AND LINCOLN

Undecided Lawyer Casts Aspersions on the Men Who Give Verdicts in Douglas County.

An Omaha lawyer trying a case in Lincoln, impressed with the superior character of the jury there as compared with here in Omaha is said to have declared himself in the following fashion to a Journal reporter there.

"The Omaha business men refuse to serve on the jury for some reason. You rarely get a jury there that is composed of men of refinement or of marked education."
