Omaha and Denver Well Entertain Big Sunday Orowd. MILTON FINALLY BREAKS THE HOODOO

Pitches Pretty Ball and Succeeds Because His Backing Bats Well at Critical Times During the Game.

While 6,000 people wildly cheered Omaha won from Denver in the tenth inning yesterday by a score of 6 to 5. Until the seventh inning it was Omaha's game without a doubt and the Grizzlies had gotten but mit off of Milton's delivery and then they started in. The eighth proved to be Omaha's bad inning though. Through a combination of errors, a gift and three hits four runs were scored by Denver. With the exception of the sixth inning Lempke was effective, keeping Omaha's hits well scattered and receiving good support. All in all, it was a championship exhibition.

Denver started in strong in the first inning after two men were out. Jones singled to right and made second on Dolan's fumble of Hartzel's warm grounder. Then Milton pitched a wild one and both runners advanced a base, but McHale knocked a hard one out in middle that Genins gathered in after a sensational run. That was Denver's only chance for six innings and its only hit as well. Omba gathered one run in in the first inning. Carter began the trouble with a single and Genins sacrificed him on one. Shugart flew out to on it. When Dolan came to bat he pounded Kansas City ... 0 0 0 0 2 1 0 0 0-3 6 1 right field, but Carter gained another base out a hot one into left field, but was caught at second trying to stretch it. Carter had wandered in with a tally.

Lots of Omaha Tallies.

In the fifth the Rourkites got another chip after two men were out. Gonding was on first and there were two strikes on Carter. The twister that Lempke unloosed it and sprinted, in the meantime "Jawnie" was running like a democrat in Georgia at a national election and he was resting on third when the ball had been found again. Genins unlimbered his guns for action, but tild not fire a shot, as Carter started for St. Joseph 2 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1-4 8 1 econd and Gonding came home while the Grizzites were fooling with Nick. Napoleon Genins started the sixth with

With three on kansas City ... hase, then Delehanty let Wright's drive go Des Moines ... through him and two runs trickled in, while Denver Dalan landed on third, Preston tried to Omaha bunt and popped out to Lempke. Then Peoria St. Joseph lifekey singled and another run clambered in. It did not seem that the Rourkeites could be stopped, but Gonding failed to get Milwaukee, Kansas City at Peoria. his bunt down on the ground and Patter-son doubled Hickey out at first unassisted. GAMES IN NATIONAL LEAGUE With a clear lead at the end of the sixth Omaha let Denver get in a run the next Chiengo's Stage Fright Allows New inning Hickey fumbled Hartzel's grounder and McHale singled. Hartzel gained an other base then, when Patterson flew out to Carter and came in, while they were fielding Lattimer out at first. That was all for that inning, but the seventh was the lucky one for Denver. Delehanty walked and Whitridge flew out. Jones awing at the ball and it went down toward Wright, who gathered it in and threw it to Dolan. Dolan let it get away and Del got clear to third. Then Hickey handled Hartzel's grounder slowly and was too late to get anyone out at second when he tried, and Delehanty had set his foot on the home sack. McHale brought in two more with a three-bagger between Carter and Genins and scored a minute later on Radcliffe's single. The score was tied and the game.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The locals had another bad case of stage fright today, were cattered both in the field and on bases, and dropped the fourth straight game to the leaders. Their base running was so dumb that in one inning the three singles, a gift and a two-bagger gave them but one run. Attendance, 23,000. Score:

Omaha Takes Its Panama Off to Summer and Both Smile.

First Bright Sunday of the Summer

Brings Street Cars, Automobiles and Old-Fashioned Vehicles Into Strenuous Service.

Summer was formally opened in Omaha yesterday with the classic tone and color of a June day. In the aftermath of two dismal weeks of rain and cold the sweeter temper of nature found a welcoming smile and a cheerful willingness to rehabilitate Panamas, oil the lawn mower and hear once more the gory chant of the mosquito. It was good to feel assured that umbrellas had ceased to be a point of honor and that open-work hosiery was really "de trop." "Therefore," said the Omaha young man to the Omaha young woman, "is is not well to bask while the sun is yet with us?" It was then a mere matter of getting into a transparent shirtwaist and telling mamma she wouldn't be home for the

According to the returns submitted by summer resort managers and other veraclous persons, one-fourth of the city's adult population must have thought it too nice to stay indoors yesterday. Fully 25,000 must have used the street cars and the divers places of approved amusement and recreation. The preachers, when they gaed from pulpits, saw well filled pews, for the morning was so bright and invigorating that everyone who helps support a church thought he ought to show a pro prietary interest. Whether later on the churchgoers used the front plazza or a livery stable rig didn't matter. In the morning they went to church.

Some Begin to Count.

At sunup the men who have money invested in open-air amusement enterprises began to count imaginary money, while the street car men said they guessed there wasn't any argument, but that a five-minute service would have to be. The baseball fans clucked happily when they shaved quite a few hours later, while the girls began to lay out a program. At noon those who had not decided where they were going to spend the afternoon simply lacked money or were too old or could not bear to help crowd the street cars. Everybody else stepped forth in the 75-degree temperature just as soon as Maggie had served dessert.

Of the mutative multitude 6,000 went to the Vinton street park and saw the Omaha baseball fellows whale Denver: 200 went to Manawa; as many to Krug park; about 4,000 to Courtland beach, and some 2,000 to witness the Tri-City League open its season in South Omaha with the assistance of a parade and a brass band. Unattached and very much attached persons and dogs filled free space at Riverview and in Hancom park. Boyd's theatre was jammed afternoon and evening to learn that Monte Cristo won in the end, and the sons of Herman cultivated a picnic at Preis Lake.

In the ernor. evening some clouds and some feeble imitations at thunder caused the throng to wonder whether they had been decelved, but after dusk a clear sky and a mild moon made the night ideal and the senses soothed and restful. So the crowds at Manawa, Courtland beach and Krug park kept increasing until late in the evening. These recreation places carried out their full programs and were in the fresh and attractive conditions they were said to be. The music at each was good, the balloons made pretty ascents on schedule time and the little boy who thought that all the peanut and popcorn men were drowned in the flood found out he was mistaken. Altogether it was a Sunday to make the wicked feel that they were not so wicked and the good to feel sorry that they could not be better.

Some of the insurance companies in Denmark have a policy which insures a girl against spinsterhood. If she marries before she is 30 she gets the $225 back, and if she dies, to her relatives is given $25.

The shorizines of the Malahar Island employ a perfect whistling language, by means of which they can communicate with each other over long distances. A stranger wandering over the islands is frequently surprised to hear from a hilltop the sound of loud whistling, which is quickly repeated on the next hill, and so is carried from summit to summit, until it dies away in the distance. But perhaps the most curious means of communication in the world is the drum language of a Congo tribe. These queer people can talk to each other with large drums made of bamboo hoops, over which the skin of some animal is stretched. The drum, however, is used only on important occasions.

George Washington Todd of Waddams Grove, Ill., who died near Rochester, N. Y., recently, and who was looked upon as a pauper for twenty years, begging an existence from the farmers of western New York and lower Canada, has been found to be rich. On his body was found $25,000 in government bonds. Today a petition was presented to the Monroe county surrogate court and letters of administration issued to Todd's heirs, who live in Waddams Grove. There also has been $28 on deposit in a Rochester bank to Todd's credit for many years, on which he never drew the interest. People who had Todd's confidence say that twenty years ago he was jilted by a girl in Illinois and disappeared. His heirs learned of his identity through the newspapers.

Somefin' is needed to keep the axels greased; so when de earf was made, petrolyum was put inside for dat purpose, De Standard Oil comp'ny comes along an strax dat petrolyum by borin' holes in de earf. De earf stix on its axels an' won't go round no more; den dere is a hot box, just as ef de earf wuz a big railway trainand den, my frien', dere is trouble."
