Neatness is a habit with some men

A cultivated taste with others—and an ambition with the rest. It isn't hard to dress well. Select your clothes right. Buy clothes that are well made—that are built to look well as long as they last-that are good enough fabrics to justify proper service.

In other words, buy "Nebraska" clothing.

The man who pays $5-$7-$10 for our two-piece summer suits doesn't simply get what he pays for, he gets the best quality goods the price will buy, but he gets more. He gets clothing that the best brains of the country devoted to that subject have studied out to make perfect. We only want to sell you one snit to demonstrate that. The next sale will be a natural consequence.
