Both Sides to Van Horne-Sunderland Case Want Higher Court The case of Ira Van Horne against the Sunderland Brothers company is set for trial before Bryce Crawford, justice of the peace, for Saturday morning. A jury has been secured and the case continued until that time because the time of the attorneys is occupied until then. It seems probable the matter will not be settled upon the decision of the jury before the justice of the peace, as both sides have said that an appeal would be taken to the district court. This is done to settle a new question raised regarding the right of a person to force a merchant to deliver
