HURRY UP WITH YOUR TAXES All Bills Will Draw Inter-City Treasurer Hennings while pleased with the inflow of personal taxes is not due on municipal real estate. During May, money from both the personal and real estate taxes was paid in more rapidly than there has been a falling off in the latter. Treasurer Hennings accounts for this by holding back until the last moment in order to have the use of the cash. After July 1 all taxes are delinquent and draw nterest at the rate of I per cent a month. Mr. Hennings pointed out yesterday that if many taxpayers refrain until the last few days of the month it will flood cannot be written until after July begins. "Taxes for which receipts are written after June 30 will be considered delinuntil July i will be considered too late and on all such payments the interest rate will be applied. I want this thoroughly understood so that property owners can get in early and avoid the possibility of having to pay interest." call for school fund warrants Nos. 1 to 680 inclusive. They will cease bearing interest June 17. The amount involved is something like $125,000.
