Is no foundation for it. An interview with Colonel Michich, who was the leader of the military party which burst into the palace at Belgrade Wednesday night is published here. The colonel is quoted as saying:

There were a number of us. Whether it was I or another who fired the first shot is simply conjecture. The chief point for us is that our work was successful. We have rendered the fatherland a tremendous service, and we are highly satisfied with our success. The first shot at M. Petrovitch was from the revolver of Captain Ristic, who is a noted marksman. Petrovitch was shot in the forehead and died instantly.

A dispatch to the Cologne Gazette from Belgrade today says the massacre lasted three-quarters of an hour. The assassins declared the killing of the king was unavoidable because if the queen had been murdered the court clique would have incited the king to persecution and reprisals. A window of the Russian legation at Belgrade was shattered by a bullet during the fusillade at the palace.

No King Yet Named.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The State department has received the following cablegram from Charles E. Wilson, secretary of legation at Athens, dated yesterday: "No new Serbian king officially proclaimed. National assembly decides Monday."

NEW KING DEPLORES CRIME

(Copyright, 1903, by Press Publishing Co.) GENEVA, Switzerland, June 12.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Four Servians, who must have left Belgrade twenty-four hours before the massacre, arrived in Geneva this morning and have been in secret conference with Prince Peter all day.

Prof. Mollard says Prince Karagevitch will remain here until Monday, when he expects the Skupstchina will summon him to Belgrade.

Prince Karagevitch in the course of an interview today said:

I deeply grieve that it has been necessary to resort to blood. I formally disapprove of the violent measures and I especially deplore that the Serbian nation should have taken such measures, an army which has nobler tasks to accomplish than assassination. It would have sufficed to force King Alexander to sign his abdication. He could have been bound as has been done in other circumstances. It is a horrible thing to shed blood.

You ask what will be my attitude when I am in possession of the crown. When I assume that I am called to the throne, I shall not fail to take into consideration the admirable institutions of Switzerland which I have learned to appreciate highly. I am in favor of absolute liberty of press. I hope to see Serbia prosper under the constitution of 1869, which is most liberal.

Regarding foreign relations I have been allied that I am systematically hostile to Austria. That is false, though possibly I am in special sympathy with Russia, to which country I sent my boy in the hope that he would later serve there.

Prince Peter has had an adventurous life since his expulsion from Serbia in 1856, when only 12 years old. He fought in the French foreign legion against Germany and afterward in the Herzegovina rebellion, in which he spent all his fortune. Of recent years he has subsisted on an allowance made him by the Russian government.

POWERS STILL STAY MUM

Will Wait Till New Ruler is Named Before Deciding Whether to Act.

PARIS, June 12.—It is stated authoritatively that thus far there has been no exchange of communication between the powers concerning Prince Peter's assumption of the throne of Serbia, but the officials are beginning to seriously consider the delicate question of the recognition of the new sovereignty. It is expected the Serbian authorities will consult the king of the Serbs, who is at Belgrade and present the latter with evidence that the people accept the new king and that he has the ability to maintain order and guarantee the safety of foreigners.

When the ministers advise their respective governments that such assurances have been received the powers will determine whether recognition will be accorded. It is considered probable that the powers will act together on the question of giving or withholding recognition.

Russia Inclined to Neutrality

ST. PETERSBURG, June 12.—The tragedy at Belgrade yesterday caused an immense sensation here. The newspapers expressed indignation and horror at the outrages, parallel for which they add, are only findable in ancient times.

At the same time the papers consider that the interference of the powers in Serbian internal affairs at present is not permissible, although developments might compel Russia and Austria to take action.

Hungary Says Nothing.

BUDA PEST, June 12.—In the Hungarian Diet today Premier Derssely, who expressed horror at the occurrences at Belgrade, said he would confine himself to an expression of the deep sorrow and indignation produced by the murders and the consequences of which could not at present be foreseen.

Bulgaria Not Anxious to Move.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, June 12.—Official circles here received the news from Belgrade quietly. It is not considered that, thus far, recent events require the adoption by Bulgaria of any special measures.

JEALOUSY LEADS TO REVOLT

British Authority Declares Women Disliked Alexander's Love for Draga.

LONDON, June 12.—Herbert Vivian, the well known traveler and author of a book on Serbia, writes: "I decline to believe this crime has the countenance of the Serbian nation. I have conversed with all classes and know absolutely that the only malcontents were a few ladies who were jealous of Queen Draga because they thought themselves more suitable to share the throne, a few officers who thought themselves entitled to more speedy promotion, and a few professional politicians who coveted office."

"When I last had the honor of an audience of the king he talked to me of the bad geographical position of the capital, saying no other country had a capital on its frontier. A scribe had only to cross the border and he could telegraph any lies he liked while the Serbian officials had to wait until they were published before they could refute them. The king contemplated making King Milan the capital. It was his and Queen Draga's favorite resort as it was King Milan's."

Queen Draga's unfailing good humor, with her beauty and charm, conquered all hearts. The devotion of King Alexander to Queen Draga was pathetic and inspiring. Even after years of married life, when the foreign press was representing them as slapping each other's face, they were treated like a lady and a gentleman. The Serbian have oriental ideas of the subjection of women. In country houses I have vainly protested while the hostess stood and acted as waitress and the men folk took their ease. The Servians were accordingly shocked when the queen was treated like a lady and they complained that when the king drove out in Belgium he would gaze at her and hold her hand instead of taking off his hat with regal regularity."

ALEXANDER LEAVES BROTHER

Handsome Boy Lives in Turkey and May Dispute Succession to Throne.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 12.—The late King Milan's second son by a Madame Criscia, whom he legitimized, and who, it is reported, will dispute Prince Karagevitch's right to the Serbian throne, lives at Constantinople with his widowed mother.

Madame Criscia was formerly architect to the sultan, a post now held by her brother. King Milan openly acknowledged the parentage of the boy, who is now 15 years of age and who is described as strikingly handsome.

MAD MAN ATTACKS EMPEROR

Strives to Strike Francis Joseph with Cane on Crowded Vienna Street.

(Copyright, 1903, by Press Publishing Co.) VIENNA, June 12.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—While Emperor Francis Joseph was out driving this afternoon, a man on foot, with a cane, rushed up to the carriage and struck at the emperor. The blow fell on the mud-guard over the carriage wheel.

As the carriage moved on the crowd seized the emperor's assailant, and beat him, crying "Knock him down. This is not Serbia." The man was insane.

CALL KING TOO OBSCURE

Conspirators Declare Massacre Only Followed Refusal to Turn Down Queen's Family.

(Copyright, 1903, by Press Publishing Co.) VIENNA, June 12.—New World Cablegram—Special Telegram.—The regulars in the Serbian conspiracy assert that they negotiated with the king a long time through persons in his confidence and postponed acting until they were convinced the queen had persuaded him to obtain consent from the New Skupstchina to arrange a succession in favor of her family. General Seina Marovitch is reported to have had the king's promise that his successor would marry one of his daughters.

submit all differences to a board of arbitration to be composed of seven members, three from the unions, three from the Restaurant Keepers' association and the seventh man to be chosen by the six, the decision of this board to be binding. All employees who will sign an agreement to accept this proposal will be allowed to remain at work, and those who refuse will be asked to leave until such time as they are willing to accept arbitration. The unions have already refused to accept arbitration and it is practically certain that the offer of the association will be refused again. Seventeen restaurants are already shut and the chances are that nearly all of the big downtown restaurants will be closed.

SHOP MEN QUIT IN CHICAGO

Action May Tie Up Plant of Chicago, Lake Shore & Eastern.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Three hundred men employed in the car shops of the Chicago, Lake Shore & Eastern railroad have gone on strike and their action threatens to tie up the South Chicago plant of the company.

The men are water tenders, oilers, car-builders and freight handlers and want a wage increase of 25 per cent. The company offered 4 per cent, which was refused.

The 600 carpenters employed in the packing plants at the Union stock yards have been given a 30 per cent increase in wages. The men are all members of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners' union and have been getting 274 cents an hour.

The carpenters desired to have their pay lifted to the union scale of 50 cents. The packers refused on the ground that the men worked the year round. A compromise was reached giving the carpenters 33 cents, the highest rate paid for similar work in any city of the west.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., June 12.—The machinists and boiler makers of the Chesapeake & Ohio railway have ordered all their men out of Hinton, Thurman and Harley, W. Va., and also at Lexington, Ashland and Russell until a settlement of the present trouble here.

COSTLY LAW SUITS IN SIGHT

Much Litigation for Damages May Be One Result of Kansas City Flood.

KANSAS CITY, June 12.—Hay, grain and feedstuffs valued, it is estimated, at between $750,000 and $800,000, which was destroyed while in transit at or near Kansas City by the recent floods, will doubtless be the source of numerous suits from shippers to secure damages from their agents.

The Kansas City Board of Trade has appointed a committee to try to find a basis of settlement. It is estimated that 700 cars of wheat and corn and 500 cars of hay and feedstuffs were destroyed. Some Kansas shippers have telegraphed their commission agents to reshipe the grain to Kansas, so they can feed it to hogs.

Cash trading on 'change here is stopped, there being no grain to deal in. Railroads are making an emergency rate for spoiled grain, but there is almost none to ship.

As a passenger train each hour of the day between Kansas City, Kan., and the Union depot will be run by the Missouri Pacific tomorrow. The only communication now between the two Kansas Cities is by row boat or steamer. The Union Pacific today made rail connections with the Missouri Pacific track in the west bottoms, so its trains can run over the Missouri Pacific bridge.

C. F. Moore, president of the stock yards company, said today:

We shall be ready to receive stock tomorrow in limited quantities and by Monday the actual business will be resumed. We will break a shut down of the stock yards here that has lasted nearly two weeks.

KANSAS CITY, June 12.—Mayor Gilbert has sent the following telegram to E. F. Ware, commissioner of pensions, at Washington:

The relief committee invites you to come to Kansas City, Kan., and see for you were correct in the statement that Kansas needs no aid. Four thousand families—20,000 people—have no need of aid. It is the people who are not in need, who are the real sufferers from the flood. We are not in need of aid. We are not in need of aid. We are not in need of aid.

Thousands of Tons of Debris Block Railroad Tracks in North Carolina.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 12.—The slide of a mountain caved in between Spartanburg and Asheville at noon today. Thousands of tons of rock and dirt plunged downward, completely filling one of the largest railroad cuts in the mountains of western North Carolina and effectually shutting off all traffic from the south.

The land slide occurred near Tryon, N. C., at the foot of Baldy mountain. The road has just resumed operation after the washouts in Spartanburg county last week. Another crack has been seen in the mountain just in the rear of the cliff from which today's avalanche descended and it is predicted that another slide will occur, in which case it will be at least twelve days before the through trains can be resumed.

ASHLAND, Neb., June 12.—(Special Telegram.)—Harry Bowers, aged 15 years, a son of Joseph C. Bowers, superintendent of the B. & M. bridge gang here, met with an accident in the railroad yards this morning. He was climbing onto a train drawn by a switch engine, when he lost his balance and fell under the wheels, his right foot being crushed to a pulp. His foot will have to be amputated and he will be a cripple for life. Young Bowers and other youths had been warned to keep away from the railroad yards under penalty of arrest.

THE ILLUSTRATED BEE

PICTURES OF PEOPLE is another of the strong points of the Bee.

This means that it gets portraits of people who are doing things and gives them to its readers in good season. People who have been singled out by their fellow citizens for places of trust and confidence, for positions of responsibility in public or private capacity, who have accomplished some service for society or who have in some legitimate way come before the public and are therefore objects of respectful interest on part of the readers of The Sunday Bee are the ones whose pictures are used. In this way The Illustrated Bee is made not only a record of the general history of its section, but gives a great deal of useful personal information as well. The next number of the paper will be especially noticeable in this regard.

TWO WORLD STATESMEN

are pictured in illustration and text in the coming number. Lord Lansdowne of England, one of the most interesting of Great Britain's public men, is the subject of a carefully prepared special article, and Sergius Witte, who is described as "the business manager for Russia" and as "the czar's right hand" is the topic of another. G. C. Carpenter's well known letter, Colonel L. B. Raymond, newly elected commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Iowa, is also shown in a fine front page picture, with a short sketch; W. P. Durkee, the new governor of B. & M., is another subject, with an outline of the civil service practice of the great Burlington system; the late James Creighton of Omaha is another, and several other individual pictures lend interest to the whole.

OMAHA'S GREAT FISHING

GROUNDS were visited by a staff artist and he secured as fine a collection of characteristic pictures as was ever published in any newspaper. The shore line of the common people fish at Cut Off lake, and show it so plainly that the short story that goes with the double page of pictures is all but unnecessary. "Cities and Their Dependents" is another of the series of articles on municipal problems by distinguished writers. "Wonderful Man Who Talks with Birds" is a very timely article on the methods of one of the coming great naturalists of the world; "Charities" supported by Helen Miller Gould, tells something of the philanthropic work of this remarkable young woman; two pages of illustrated matter pertaining to fashions will interest the women; the weekly installment of Robert Barr's new serial, "Over the Border," takes the reader into another sphere of the story's activity and develops another of its phases; a snappy short story and the regular departments, with a liberal amount of carefully selected miscellaneous matter make up the contents of the number. If you are not now a subscriber you should have your order with your newsdealer today.

ROBBERS LOOT EXPRESS CAR

Throw Undesirable Articles Outside and Give Officers a Clue.

ONE ESCAPES AND TWO ARRESTED

Pockets of Men Are Filled with Valuables, While Only One Package in Car is Left Undisturbed.

ROCHESTER, Ind., June 12.—Last night at midnight an express car attached to the eastbound train on the Erie railway was entered by robbers just outside of Englewood, who completely looted it.

The robbers threw undesirable express packages along the road all the way from Hammond to Rochester. The crew of a freight train followed the express car and discovered packages beside the track and notified the officers at Huntington, where the express car door was forced open. As this was done one of the robbers dashed out, firing two shots, and made his escape.

The police then made their way into the car and found two other robbers hiding behind some packages. They were placed under arrest. In all the pockets in their clothing they had valuable goods stored away. Every package in the car, with the exception of one, had been picked over. This package contained about $7,000 worth of valuables.

The crew of the freight train picked up the amount of $4,000.

The men arrested are Cyrus Gillen, aged 25, of Piqua, O., and Frank Marion, 22, of Lima, O.

DOCTORS DISAGREE

EACH GAVE MRS. BREWEN'S TROUBLE A DIFFERENT NAME.

None Helped Her, but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured Her When Her Case Was Thought Hopeless.

Prejudice and scepticism, however sincere, must give way before an honest presentation of facts, and any reader who may have hesitated to test the virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People owe it to themselves to seriously consider a statement that is actuated solely by a desire to help others.

"I suffered with stomach trouble for three years," says Mrs. A. H. Brewen of No. 403 North Sargent avenue, Joplin, Mo. "I had three doctors at different times. One of them said my trouble was indigestion, the second said it was gastritis, and the third pronounced it cancer of the stomach. None of them did me any good. At one time I was confined to my bed for nearly three months. Many of my friends thought I would never get better, and I began to think so myself."

"I had a headache pretty much all the time and suffered continually with a burning pain in my stomach. Sometimes I could hardly get my breath. My stomach would retain food but a few minutes and I frequently vomited quite a lot of blood. My condition had become alarming when a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and gave me some that she had left after she was cured. They seemed to help me and I bought another box. Before they were gone I was on the road to recovery. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to several of my friends and neighbors and am glad of this opportunity to tell others what the pills have done for me."

Any reader who is suffering from stomach trouble should send for a copy of Dr. Williams' diet book, entitled "What to Eat and How to Eat." It is free, whether you try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or not, and it has helped many to find renewed health and vigor.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are not a new remedy, but have been used for years throughout the civilized world. As a blood builder and nerve tonic the pills have no equal and they have cured many cases of locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion and all forms of weakness, either in male or female.

Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers, or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, fifty cents a box, or six boxes for two dollars and fifty cents, by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
