HIGH SCHOOL YEAR CLOSES

Exercises of the Last Week to Be as Simple as Possible.

CHANGE FROM CUSTOM OF PAST YEARS

Commencement Program to Be Given Friday Night and Senior Class Will Have Banquet at Millard Saturday Night.

The last week of the year 1902-03 in the Omaha High school has been devoted of a good deal of the distinctiveness and interest that marked the closing days of previous years by deliberate purpose.

It will be envisioned on Tuesday by an excursion to the battalion camp at Auburn, where 300 leads are camping at the fair grounds, and most of the girls of the school with parents and other relatives will go down Friday of the present week and Monday and Wednesday of the next will be spent in school by the girls, but their work will not be of any serious import, consisting of reviews and general recitations.

Thursday will be spent by all students and teachers in bringing the grades in order. It is expected that the closing exercises will be held on Friday at 10:15 A.M.
