Norman Metcalfe, the 27-year-old son of the deposed 1600 per annum for his appointment as Flees Officers, Hides Within Jall superintendent, drawa a salary of $2,250 from the company.

Mr. Metcalfe when seen tonight said that he had done nothing wrong and had nothing to conceal, that his son's employment by the bidding firm could have no effect on the award, that he suggested Herman's return to his company to handle the government work there because he knew Herman's means were limited and that a stoppage of supplies in the midst of a contract term would have proved serious. He says with Herman's consent he wrote to Mr. Hallenbeck, advising that Mr. Herman be restored to his old place and that he told Herman that he had little doubt the government would allow him to withdraw his forfeit check of $5,000.
