LITTLE KINGDOM OTHERWISE IN DANGER

Regicides Said to Have Strained Relations with Powers.

MONTENEGRAN PRINCE SENDS GREETINGS

Speaking for All Serbs Karageorgevitch's Father-in-Law Halls New Ruler and Welcomes His Succession to Throne.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 18 .- An official note was published in the Gazette today recognizing Peter Karageorgevitch as king of Servia and welcoming his ascession. In brief the note declares that it is incumbent upon King Peter to avenge the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga and expresses the conviction that he will know how to severely panish the regicides. whose misdeeds should not be visited on the entire Servian nation or army.

The note adds that it would be dangerous to the tranquillity of Servia to leave the crime unpunished.

Text of the Note. The text of the note follows:

A week has now elapsed since the day of the bloody revolution at Beigrade, an inti-mation of which could not be given to the imperial government in the customary of-ficial form because legal authority was lacking in Servia ficial form because legal authority was lacking in Servia.

Strictly adhering to its standpoint of non-intervention in the internal affairs of the Balkan states, and at the same time finding it impossible to hold any intercourse with the persons who have arbitrarily usurped power, Russia has awalted the conclusion of the troubles in order to define clearly its attitude toward the events in the kingdom of Servia.

its attitude toward the events in the kingdom of Servia.

The Skupshtina and Senate assembled in extraordinary session June 16, the legal order of things was re-established and Prince Peter Karageorgevitch was unanimously elected king.

The prince, complying with the request of the national assembly, has consented to ascend the throne of Servia under the name of Peter I. Immediately after the proclamation the new king telegraphed to the casar asking his imperial majesty to recognize him as king, whereupon the reply of his majesty in confirmation of this was sent.

Must Punish Assassing.

The imperial government, while hailing the election of the new mo-arch, scion of a glorious dynasty, and wishing all success to the supreme head of the Servian people, which is ailied to Russia by the of religion, can nevertheless not refrain from expressing the confident hope that King Peter will be able to give evidence of his sense of justice and firmness of will be adole to divertify the about the abominable deed that has been committed and meteout rigorous punishment to those traitorous criminals who have stained themselves with the infamy attaching to regicides.

Of course the entire Servian nation or its army cannot be had responsible for the erims which revolts public conscience, yet it and the content of the service of the revolts of Service in the revolution of the

it will be charactous to Secule's informal peace not to exact explation for the revolution carried out with violence by the military. Such neglect will inevitably react in an unfavorable manner on the relations of all the states with Servia and would create for Servia serious difficulties at the very commencement of the reign of King Peter I. Their Russian co-religiousies offer to God. Their Russian co-religionists offer to Gos aupplications for the repose of the souls o King Alexander and his consort, who have untimely end, and they invoke the blessings of the Almienty on the King Peter for the welfare and prosperity of the Servian people.

Prince Nicholas Expresses Pleasure. VIENNA, June 18 .- In his telegram of congratulations to King Peter, Prince Nicholas of Montenegro says:

To the whole of Servia I send wishes of happiness, but first of all to its heroes, who, in the person of the grandson of George The Black, today received the long desired knight of a knightly stock that they may revive together with him the inborn virtue with which the freedom and independence of Servis was conquered and established.

All the Serbs from the sea to the Danube rest your auspicious succession.

The founders of our houses, Karageorg and Vladika Danilo, will ever live and and Vladika Danilo, will ever live and glow in Servian hearts.
Hall to the justice of God; hall to you; hall to the Servian people.
The community of our feelings and blood is a piedge to all the Serbs that the indivisible friendship of Servia and Montenegro will ever gleam holy and healing for our people.

for our people.

Above this Servian concord hovers the angelic soul of Zorka, my daughter and your spouse, whose blood and love shall ever unite your children and mine. Long live the king of Servia.

Peter Goes to Church.

GENEVA, June 18 -- King Peter attended a Te Deum service today at the Russian church in honor of his election to the throne of Servia. He was loudly cheered. The Bervian military procession arrived here today.

Strictures Are Suppressed.

BELGRADE, June 18.-The telegram of Emperor Francis Joseph to King Peter has not been published here, because of the em peror's strictures on the murderers of King Alexander and Queen Draga.

It appears that immediately after the asmassinations the conspirators sounded the St. Petersburg and Vienna cabinets and received assurances of their approval of the election of King Peter. The latter's eldest sister Polyene Preschern, the divorced wife of an Austrian landowner, who has been living for years in reduced circumstances, near Vienna, has announced her intention of returning to Servia. #### Jews in Another Russian Town Are Thrown into a State of Terror.

BERLIN, June 18.-The Tageblatt's St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs that a report has gained circulation at Novgorod Sajewersk, in the government of Charnigof, precisely similar to that which nused the massacre at Kishineff, namely that the government had ordered the e. termination of the Jews.

The people began to make preparations most openly, talked the matter over publicly and appointed May 27, coronation day, for the massacres. Terror seized the Hebrew population, which assembled in the synagogue on the day appointed. There were 5,000 persons within and without the building awaiting the beginning of the massacre, but the police paraded the streets in force and prevented the gathering of mobs, although some persons formed crowds and shouted "Strike the Jews dead." The day, however, passed without any serious outbreak.

The marshal of the aristocracy, Prince Galitzin, and several priests of the Russian church, attended the coronation celebration in the synagogue, so as to reassure the Jews. Their presence exercised a restraint on the populace.

Bloodshed Feared Whatever Verdict is Returned, Accompanied by General Exodus of Beaten Faction in Vendetta.

JACK 4 Ky., June 18 -As expected here, the In the Marcum case has tree on a verdict. The been unable case was subs early this afternoon and tonight, it stated, at least two jurors are holding out for conviction, while the others are divided, most of them favoring acquittal. The jurors went to bed early and there will be no report before tomorrow.

As the jury retired an hour before dinner it is thought the first ballot was taken before lunch and there are conflicting reports as to the number of ballots taken during the afternoon and night and as to how they stood.

Fear Trial's Aftermath.

During this suspense there has been intense anxiety about the courthouse and throughout the town in discussing what tion. might follow either a verdict of guilty or of acquittal, or of a compromise on imprisonment, but the indications are that the jury will finally report that it has disagreed and ask to be discharged. It is claimed in that event there is no

the Stampa a long interview, contradicting such probability of bloodshed and further the alarmist reports circulated concerning arson as there would be in the event of conviction; that there would be a general exodus of members of the Cardwell-Cockfully well for a man of 94 and that his rell faction, the widows and orphans of presence at the consistory to be held Mon-victims and others, and that the dominant faction would be left without formidable opposition in holding the town as well as the county offices hereafter. It is not expected that the prosecution for the murder of Marcum and others will stop with this jury. Although the court has been in session some weeks at great Dougherty, bishop of Lueva Segovia, Phil- expense it is believed State Inspector Hines will make such a report to the governor as to secure other trials under dif ferent conditions. It is remarked that the general exodus that is expected will take away many of those who might otherwise be depended on as witnesses and jurors. It is not likely the county will find soon another such witness as B. J. Ewen, who has removed to Lexington, or another such pros ecutor as Commonwealth's Attorney who expects to locate at Winchester, Ky. Business was practically suspended to day. The reign of terror still continues with all sorts of apprehensions as to the future and no hope of any convictions under the present official conditions. The members of the Hargis faction were almost jubilant tonight over the unofficial reports from the jury room. It was claimed confidentially that ten of the jurors were morrow in a verdict of acquittal. It is mentioned that all the men brought in for Nebraska, Colon, regular, Harry L. Sheppended upon for the result that is now anticipated. After the jury reported no agreement tonight and was instructed by Judge Redwine to continue its deliberations, he said he never expected a verdict on the first night and would keep the jury out at least until Saturday unless a verdict is rendered before that time.

A heavy guard was placed tonight around the home of Commonwealth's Attorney

Flock to Hear Byrd.

There was another "curious crowd" here cases of Curtis Jett and Thomas White. The plendings of Judge J. B. French, John D. O'Neil and B. B. Golden, for the de fense, and of Captain William T. Hurst and Thomas Marcum, for the prosecution, on vesterday and last night had attracted so much attention that all wanted to hear Commonwealth Attorney Byrd close the case this morning. The mothers of the defendants, widows of feud victims and other women were again present. While all the men who entered the court room were searched every day for concealed weapons, extra precautions were taken today by the soldiers, as there are grave apprehensions as to what may happen with such a crowd in town after the trial is concluded. If it is a hung jury it is said that Governor Beckham, who has State Inspector Hines here looking on, will not have the next trials in Breathitt county, nor Judge Redwine sit in other cases. Inspector Hines came back to investigate the attempt to bribe Witness Ewen. Ewen had five wit nesses to the attempt to bribe and threats of assassination and the destruction of his #### property. Newspaper Men Threatened.

There are grave fears today for some newspaper men. Two correspondents left vesterday and the papers have sent new men, so they will not be known to the assassins. It is dangerous for one man to remain here long if his paper has a circulation in the town.

When court convened today B. B. Golden concluded for the defense and Commonwealth Attorney Byrd made his argument. Mr. Byrd has a reputation as a fearless prosecutor, and when the cases opened he announced his intention of doing his duty, it mattering not who was hurt. Byrd has purchased a home in Winchester, Ky., and is preparing to remove his family to that that twenty-three villages were affected place as soon as these cases are over. RICHMOND, Va., June 18 -- Judge Grinnan of the Richmond chancery court today granted an injunction restraining Lieuten ants Theiss and Grosdeck, United States navy, from proceeding further toward the launching of the cruiser Galveston under construction in the Trigg ship yards here. The injunction was granted on petition of S. H. Hawes & Co., supply creditors of Trigg & Co., now in the hands of a re ceiver, and restrains government officials and all other persons from in any way interfering with any of the property at the Trigg yards under control of Lilburn A. T. Myers, the receiver, and especially the cruiser Galveston and the dredge Benyard, under construction for the government. Lieutenants Theiss and Grosdeck were sent here by the Navy department to superintend the launching of Galveston which it was the intention of the department to send to the Norfolk navy yard for completion. All preparations had been made
