Chief Donabue Thinks W. L. Walker is Something of a Falsifier.

BÉLIEVES HIS THREAT WAS INSINCERE

Walker's Brother-in-Law Comes to Omaha and Tella Chief of Police. Some Incidents of Letter Writer's Career.

After a more thorough investigation into the past history and actions of W. L. Walker, who wrote Chief of Police Donahue that he intended to jump into the river. the chief is of the opinion that the said Walker is something of a prevaricator and that he has not gone near the Missouri river with suicidal intent.

Chief Donahue bases his belief on information furnished by Dr. S. T. Adamson of Malvern, Ia., a brother-in-law of Walker who called on the chief Wednesday night. According to Dr. Adamson's story, Walker called up his wife at Albion a week ago last Monday night and informed her that he had been kicked by a horse and dangerously wounded and had to go to a hospital. He wanted money with which to defray the expenses. The next day Dr. Adamson talked with Walker in Omaha and the latter said he intended to kill himself because his wife had sued him for divorce. Last Saturday night, at which time Walker wrote his letter to the chief, he called up his wife again and told her that he had been in the hospital for a week from the effects of a dose of arsenic which he had taken with suicidal intent. Again he wanted money with which to pay his expenses. As Walker faisified to his wife on these occasions the chief believes now that he has falsified in his letter.
