Into Wrong Coop and

Herman, Neb., who came to Omaha Thursday night to become an Eagle, flew into the wrong coop and was plucked for $2,000 worth of good notes given to him by the farmers of the vicinity of Herman. Hastel is roosting down at the city jail while the police find out whether the $2,000 was really in notes of "conversation" money. night suffering from a bad case of inebriety which he said broke out on him order to stand the Eagle initiation. The police believed not the story of his loss, and Hastel was given cell room until yesterday morning, when he related his experlence. said, a polite colored man took him in charge and proceeded to show him the sights. The two made the rounds of various saloons and suddenly the colored man backed him up against a brick building somewhere, took his purse and then ran. Hastel discontinued his search for the Eagles' headquarters and was found later by an officer and taken to the station.

CORNELIUS VAN COTT.

Postoffice, New York, N. Y., June 12, 1903. Superintendent James Walsh said: "The exhibit and Nebraska will make a fine showing along these lines. There will also be an excellent exhibit of Nebraska grasses. The fact is that Nebraska has growing within its borders the greatest variety of nutritious grasses of any state in the union. We have here 142 varieties, while some a fine exhibit of sheaf grain grown without irrigation. We are also arranging for a fine corn exhibit."

Senied bids will be received at the office of Secretary of State up until 12 o'clock moon on the 22d day of June, 1803, for the erection of two cyliendrick fire escapes at the Hastings Asylum, as per plans and specifications on file in the office of Secretary of State. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
