Omaha Players Only Make One Error and This Does Not Cut Any Figure in the Scoring.

ST. JOSEPH, June 19.—(Special Telegram.)-The field work of the Saints today was very amateurist, and Omaha profited by every one of them and made runs. Seven errors to the credit of the home team, compared with a practically clean state for Rourke's men, was too much for the patience of the local fans, who were sometimes severe in denouncing the ragged work. Pat Seay of St. Joe, late with the as slab artist for the Saints. Seny is a Six hundred enthusiastic fans greeted the Saints in their last tussel with Omahas. Shafstal did the slab work for Rourke's braves.

Carter opened for Omaha, flying out to Rohe. Shugart flew out to Hartman and don opened for the home team, with a base on balls. He was advanced to second by Rohe's sacrifice and went to third on Hartman's out to the infield. Kemmers' popup to Hickey retired the side.

Wright opened the second for Omaha flying out to Hartman. Dolan went out from Robe to Kemmer and Genius from McBride to Kemmer. The Saints got one run in their half of the second. Maher opened with a slashing two-bagger and was Score: dyanced to third on McConnell's bunt, on which the latter made first by the grace of the pitcher's error. McBride sacrificed, scoring Maher and advancing McConnell to second. Crum struck out and Seay retired the side, going out on an infield hit.

In the third Omana went out in one, two three order. Hickey striking out, Gonding flying out to Hartman and Shafstal going out on a line drive to Maher. Belden opened for the Saints by flying out to Wright. Robe followed with a good threebagger. Hartman went down on a popun to Dolan and Kemmer retired the side by

In the fourth carelessness on the part of the Baints resulted in two runs for the visitors. Carter got to first on Kemmer's fumble of his short hit. Shugart singled, advancing Carter to second. Preston made first on Seay's error of his infield grounder. Wright flew out to left, scoring Carter, Dolan got to first on Rohe's fumble of an infield grounder. Genins went out on an infield grounder, scoring Shugart. Hickey west out from Seay to Kemmer. The Saints failed to score in their half. Maher went out to Wright. McConnell went out to center on a fly and McBride on an in-

In the fifth Gonding went out on an infield grounder to McBride, Shafstal struck out and Carter flew out to Belden. For the Saints Crum beat out an infleid hit and went out on fielder's choice of Seny's infield hit. Belden got a base on bails, Robe went on fielder's choice of an infield grounder and Hartman retired the side by flying out to left.

In the sixth Shugart got a base on balls. Preston sacrificed him to second. Wright fouled out and Dolan retired the side by flying out to Kemmer. Kemmer was hit in the back by a pitched ball, but Umpire Breunan refused to give him a base on it. When Rohe protested Brennan threatened to fine him. Feeling exists between Brennan and Kemmer over an old difficulty. Kemmer finally went out on a fly. Maher singled. McConnell flew out to Wright. Maher was caught trying to steal second. Oranha added a score each in the we and eighth innings. The score:

The Evanston Golf club of Kansas City telegraphed to the Country club late Friday afternoon that it would be unable to compete in the tournament, which was to have been held on the latter's links Saturday afternoon. The telegram was a disappoint, as the Country club had made many preparations for this match and had guthered several of their team in from the country for the match. Last year the Country club beat the Evanston club quite handly on its own links and hoped to do even better this time on the more familiar home grounds. In place of the tournament there will be a sweepstake handleap.

Hartem.

CHICAGO, June 18—Jockeys Johnny Reiff and Sinciair were painfully injured in the first race. Reiff suffered a dislocation of the left clavicle and the surgeon who attended him said the boy would be out of the saddle for several weeks. Sinciair was more fortunate, having no bones broken. He was unconscious, however, for nearly half an hour after the accident. Helff had the mount on Gaiba, and Sinciair rode Discord. Going round the turn there was much crowding.
