They presented their plea in somewhat of a perfunctory manner in pursuance of the implied obligation existing between old soldiers to lend aid and comfort to the brethren of the blue. It was intimated that a petition had been circulated among old soldiers urging the exercise of clemency on the part of the governor.

It is understood that those who are not in sympathy with the movement for clemancy will have a hearing before Governor Mickey July 1, when the attorney general of York public schools, was elected to take and Prosecuting Attorney Stinson, who conducted the prosecution of Rhea, will probably be heard. Mr. Stinson was present when the presentation of the Rhea case was made by Judges Loomis and Reese, Mayor Adams and Attorney Menzies of Indiana, but was not called upon to reply, probably because he is expected to be heard from later.
