BUILDING BLESSED BY SIMPLE CEREMONY

Father Glauber Preaches the Sermon, Taking for His Theme the Office of the Church in the World.

The first service in the new church of St. Mary Magdalene was held Sunday morning with high mass, at which Father Glauber presided.

The sermon of Father Glauber, which was delivered in German and in English, had for its theme the office of the church in the world.

He said that after Friday the new church would be open every day from 8:30 to 7 o'clock in the morning.

TRIPLE FEAST AT SACRED HEART

Impressive Services by Fathers Jenette, Noonan and Judge.

A very beautiful and impressive service was observed yesterday at the Church of the Sacred Heart, North Twenty-second street.

The tripartite celebration of the feast of the Sacred Heart began at 10:30 a. m., before a large congregation.

The sermon was preached by Father S. A. Blackburn, S. J., of Creighton university.

MAN AND HIS USE OF POWER

Theme of Rev. H. G. Hill at Kountze Memorial Church.

Rev. Harry G. Hill of the First Christian church spoke from the pulpit of the Kountze Memorial church Sunday morning to the members of his own congregation and of Kountze Memorial.

"Look back," he said, "along the pathway that mankind has followed down to his present state and we pass by the milestones in long array, over bloody battlefields, past ruined cities of an ancient civilization, through a wild and roaming life to the caves, where he dwelt within the range of all animals and was little above them in mental vigor and ability."
