Plum. Trem a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, June 27 .- (Special.) -- Governor Mickey announced today that there would be no respite or reprieve granted to Murderer William Rhen. He intends to settle the matter finally, so that there will be no further agitation, and no other governor will have the responsibility fixed upon him He will stand ready, however, until the last hours to listen to any pleas in his behalf The attorneys for Rhea have been given another chance to present their case. The governor has gone over the record and found nothing to justify the exercise of his prerogative, but is willing to have anything therein specially called to his atten-

Rhea has a death watch over him now. Every moment of his time he is watched by one or two guards, and if he does give the gallows the slip, as some of his old cronies behind prison bars think he intends to do, he must have a new card up his sleeve. Governor Mickey says the man has lost his defiant attitude, speaks more gently and seems resigned.

Means a Constitutional Convention. The decision of Judge Holmes yesterday in knocking out the constitutionl amendment relating to the length of legislative sessions and pay of members will be a big boom for the constitutional convention idea. At least that is what Lincoln lawyers and some of the state officers think. The last legislature provided for the submission of the question of calling a constitutional convention, and Governor Mickey's attempted veto will not prevent this, because it is held that he has no power to veto such a joint resolution.

Attorney General Prout thinks that this decision will make the constitutional convention one of the live issues. It will bring lots of pressure to bear on behalf of the proposition, as it will be generally conceded that the business of the Nebraska legislature has grown so great that it will be impossible to do the work in the forty days allowed by the old constitution. If this stands the next legislature or two will have to appoint a sifting committee soon after it

Mr. Prout is not talking for publication and he intends appealing the case, but it is understood that he does not believe the decision of Judges Holmes could be over Coroner's Jury Exonerates Union Pacific from Linbility for Eddie Brown's Death.

FREMONT, Neb., June 27 .- (Special.) Coroner Brown held an inquest yesterday afternoon on the remains of Eddie Brown, the boy who was killed near the Union Pacific depot Thursday. It appeared from the evidence that he was crossing the tracks in company with two other boys and got between two trains. He became frightened and started to crawl under the freight when it started to back up and he was struck by the wheels. Keating, the Union Pacific flagman, saw the boys and told them not to go between the two trains, but they did not heed him. Vern Rexroth, a 7-year-old boy, who was with the Brown boy was so affected by the accident that he immediately started for the country and walked four miles out to his grandfather's farm. EVERY EDITOR IS INVITED ASKED TO BE LOCKED UP Should Bring His Wife Along, Too, Queer Story of an Iowa Man May Give Clew to Cass County Horsethief.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., June 27 .- (Special.)-The Cass county officials believe that they have at last secured a clue as to the whereabouts of the fellow who was at one time the companion in crime with William Jones, the horsethief who got one year at the last term of district court and was taken to the penitentiary yesterday.

Sheriff McBride received a letter from Sheriff Evans of Marion, Ia., yesterday stating that he had a fellow in jail who related a strange story. He requested the officer there to lock him up, stating that he was one of a party who stole some horses in Cass county, and that one of the men was arrested by the sheriff in Nebraska City and was later taken to the Plattsmouth jall. He further claimed to be one of the men who helped to dispose of the stolen horses. He gave his name as L. H. Inlay, and is described as being about 26 years of age, very short, slim built, light weight and appears to be slightly demented. He is also said to be a cocaine and cigarette fiend, and laims to have worked in Perry Utterback's restaurant in this city.

He is now serving a seven days' sentence n jail at Marion. The letter was shown to Jones just before he was started for the pen and the latter admitted that the description given was that of the man who had been his companion, and his conclusion was strengthened by the fact that the man is addicted to the cocaine habit. Sheriff McBride will go to Marion soon and it is quite probable that the fellow will
