Board Insists Upon Having Schedules from Banks in Uniform Style-No Decision Vet on Stock Yards Assessment.

The County Board of Equalization yester- Bride and Groom on Illinois Central day morning had before it a large number wholesale and retail dealers who had been called upon to show cause why their assessments should not be raised. There were few changes made and none of any importance, most of the cases being dismissed, as the difference between the county assessment and one-sixth of the city assessment was so little as to be immate-

The board did not announce its decision in the matter of the assessment of the real estate of the Union Stock Yards company. and it was said that no conclusion had been reached by the members.

The bankers of the city were before the board, but were excused until Thursday, when they will be expected to present sworn statements of the condition of the institutions. Some criticism was made over the action of some of the banks in preparing these statements last year, and nembers of the board insisted upon uniform style. Last year one of the reports showed the total resources of the bank, and ! from one-sixth of this amount was taken the total assessed valuation of the real estate assessed against the bank, the remainder being what the bank desired to be assessed upon as personal property. Another bank subtracted from the total reources the total value of the real estate owned and reported one-sixth of the remainder as the assessed valuation of the all of the banks, as it gives them an opascertained.

The board has decided to extend its sitting until July 7. Official Assessment Figures.

Train Furnish the Amuse-

While the bride and groom rode in the baggage coach ahead out of Woodbine last night the passengers on the Illinois Centrai train were marveling at what they had been treated to. At Woodbine a band of the society push of the village had stormed the approaches of the train and driven the porters to the roof and the timid passengers under their seats, while they flung rice, old shoes and posters, damp with the imprint of the village press, over the seats and the less fearful passengers.

As time wore on and the more hardened of the traveling men became less fearful the reason for the doings became apparent, for the posters read:

for the posters read:

George and Blanche, Married Tuesday, June 39, 1803.—This interesting and newly wedded pair from Woodbine, i.a., are commended to the tender mercles of the passengers on this train. Any attentions shown to them will be appreciated by anxious friends and relatives and (perhaps) by the couple aforeasid.

They have never traveled together before and have been turned loose on this occasion with many misgivings. Not having a chaperone to spare just at present we respectfully petition the passengers herein to supply the deficiency. Report any indiscretions to the nearest police station and telegraph President Roosevelt at our expense.

Suspicious Characters.

For a number of nights past three suspicious characters have been hanging about he alley in the rear of buildings on Twenty-fourth street between M and N streets. Two nights in succession these men have been compelled to run on account of the watchdogs in the neighborhood being turned loose. The police are constantly arresting suspicious characters, but those taken to jail are generally found in the railroad yards. It is stated that a policeman is seldem seen going through alleys in the business portion of the city. Better police protection in the business gone to Bath, Me. part of town is to be requested.

No Market Saturday. The South Omahn Live Stock exchange has declared that there will be no market here on Saturday, July 4. All stock arriving will be yarded, fed and watered, but will not be offered for sale until Monday. The banks and city offices will be closed and stores and barber shops will close at noon. No celebration has been planned for July 4 here.

More Bank Changes.
