LINCOLN, Neb., July 8 .- (Special Tele ram.)-Doubtless W. J. Bryan is disposed o institute an investigation of the Weather ureau for the shabby treatment it has corded him in his effort to welcome his ends at his splendid new home, Fairview. First he selected two evenings in May for reception, inviting about 600 friends to attend on the two evenings. Bad weather prompted a postponement and later it was weather was going to be intolerable and the receptions were declared off indefinitely. During the current week it was anunced that in view of the presence of Hon. Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland, Lewis cago at Fairview to take part in the celebration of the Fourth, the reception would be crowded into a single evening and all who had been invited for the doublebidden to come enmasse tonight.

The weather was ideal up to the hour for especially for the occasion. En route the purchased. guests passed the grove and big tent in which tomorrow's speaking is to occur, and the latter served as a retreat for numerous parties that left the cars in the midst of the rain.

The big new mansion was embellished with flags and an abundance of flowers and potted plants. An orchestra on the third floor played during the evening. In cake was served by a half a dozen young ceived similar invitations. women, led by Miss Ruth Bryan.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, Mr. Johnson, Dr. Taylor and Mr. Post. There was an absence of formality. Many evening costumes were worn by both women and men, but they were not an essential. The entire house was thrown open to inspection and elicited much extravagant admiration. The reception continued from 8:30 until 10 o'clock. The souvenirs vere tiny silken flag badges.

expected, and an immense crowd is looked for Several thousand seats have been provided and there will be a big tent to house the speakers and auditors. The celebration will last the greater part of the day.

The program begins at 10 o'clock in the morning with a band concert. At 11 o'clock ex-State Treasurer Wolfe and J. W. Crist will speak on "Pioneer Reminiscences," and at 12 o'clock luncheon will be served by the club. At 1 o'clock the speechmaking begins again. Mr. Bryan will preside and introduce each speaker. Mayor Johnson, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Post will all speak. There will be music, both vocal and instrumental, and the colonel has left the latchstring hanging entirely out, with no "Keep off the grass" signs visible.

Anderson was a lumperman who alleged that the state association had damaged his business by certain methods. He had a cause of action for injury to his business against some seven joint tort-feasors. He brought an action against three of them. Pending the action he became bankrupt and listed his interest therein among his assets. In consequence it was sold, along with other property, and at Gibbon and had no relatives in these the purchaser made a settlement with the parts, but it is supposed that he has some defendants. Afterward he brought the present action against the other four tortfeasors, who set up the settlement in satisfaction in bar.
