SUPREME CO*URT SYLLABI

12837. Linton against Heye. Error from Otoe Affirmed. A'bert. C. Division No. 2.

1. Ordinarily if a defendant intends to rely on a want of jurisdiction of the court over his person, he must appear, if at all, for the sole purpose of objecting to the jurisdiction; if he appears for any other purpose his appearance is general.

2. But when the lack of jurisdiction does not appear on the face of the record, but must oe established by evidence aliunde, he may plead to the jurisdiction or unite a plea to the jurisdiction with other defenses in the action, without waiving his right to insist on a lack of jurisdiction. Huriourt against Palmer, 29 Neb., 173.

3. The preceding rule is limited to cases where the plea to the jurisdiction stands alone, or, is united with such defenses as go to defeat a recovery by the plaintiff, and does not extend to cases where such plea is joined with a cross-petition, or counter claim, which necessitates a trial on the merits of the issues tendered by the plaintiff spetition.

4. The statute of limitations, respecting action for the recovery of real property, as construed by this court, is not open to the objection that it operates to deprive the owner of his property without due process of law.

5. Such statute runs against married women during coverture, whether residents or nonresidents of this state.
