Camp will be broken on Friday morning, July 14. Accompanying the orders from Colonel Kingsbury is a plat showing the arrangements of the camp ground. The brigade headquarters will be located on the north side of the grove about half way between the east and west sides. South of the headquarters will be the four regimental camps, the First regiment on the west and the others in order extending to the east side of the grove. The majors' headquarters will be south of the regimental camps at either side of the grove.

The sixteenth biennial assembly of the brigade will be held Monday afternoon, August 10, at 2 o'clock at the brigade headquarters for the election of officers, including a successor to General Manchester. The term of General Manchester would he lived, therefore his successor will be elected for the full term of four years.

Routine of Camp.

The daily routine of the camp will be as follows:

Reveille, 6 a. m.; breakfast, 7 a. m.; guard mount, 8 a. m.; dinner, 12 m.; sup-per, 6 p. m.; parade or review, 7 p. m.; tat-too, 11 p. m. This program will be varied by brigade meetings at 2 p. m., August 10 and 11, and parade at 5 p. m., Wednesday, August 12.

On Sunday evening, August 9, at 5 p. m., services will be conducted at the camp by the brigade chaplain, Major T. H. McBeth, in memory of General Manchester.

The following prizes will be given during the encampment: For the best drilled company, $150; for the second best drilled company, $75; for the full company coming the longest distance, $50; for the largest

Young Widow Kills Herself.

VICTOR, Ia., July 9 .- (Special.)-The sul cide of Mrs. Emma Eischer here last night ends a young life that has been full of romance and tragedy. Mrs. Eischer killed herself with a revolver at her father's home. She was only 19 years old, but she had been bride and widow within the last two mouths. She was a daughter of Mr. will be tendered a reception in Bayliss and Mrs. John Hughes, living two miles north of the city. Her father is a wealthy stock breeder. The girl, who was a general favorite among the young people, became engaged to William Eischer and about the first of May the two ran away and were secretly married at Davenport. Then they came home and he secures, about a month later, a position as brakeman on the Rock Island system. On the very first trip out he was instantly killed at West Liberty, and the bride of a month became a widow. Her grief over the loss of her young husband is believed to have made her temporarily insane and in her despair she decided to end her life.
