scheibeck's Errors Are Largely Responsible for the Loss of the Game by the Men from the Mountains.

The Rourkites made it five straight wins yesterday when they took the third game from Denver by a score of 9 to 7. Sanders made his debut with Omaha and was touched up for a total of eleven hits, but kept them well scattered, except in the fifth and seventh innings, when they bunched them and got five of their seven

It was a game of many sides and the work of Umpire Mulians was in great disfavor with the players, and the grandstand and everyone took a hand in saying what they thought of it. When Hickey, running for Carter in the sixth, slid under Lattimer at the plate and was called safe the Grizzlies surged around Mullane and then started for the bench, but Muliane called in the police and the dove of peace once more soared over the diamond. Muliane was fair on base decisions, but lacked dissernment when it came to the calling of balls and strikes, and gave little satisfaction to either team.

In the first inning Omaha gained a great, big lead on Denver's presentation of three rank errors. The lead was so great that, try as they might, the Grizzlies never overcame it. After Carter had gone out Genins dealt out a hot one to Schiebeck and Schiebeck fumbled. Spugart drove the ball to the fence for two sacks and Genius scored, while Shugart anished a moment later when Schlebeck fumbled Wright's hit, Then Thomas smashed out a double and Jones let it go through him and another score came in. Hickey flew out and Gonding singled and scored Thomas. That was all the locals could get that inning, and Denver started to get a point. With Dun-don on third on fielders choice and two out Thomas let a grounder go through him and Dundon came in. In the fifth Denver added three more on three singles and a

Omaha took one more score in its half of the fifth and another in the sixth. Denver gained two in the seventh and Omaha raised as many more in its half. In the eighth the Grizzlies secured their last score on Dundon's home run to right. It was good for three bags anyhow, but Welch fielded it in slow and he scratched home

(From a Staff Correspondent.) CRESTON, Ia., July 9 .- (Special Telegram.)-The second day of the trip of the Omaha jobbers' excursion has brought no

weather is equally acceptable. The trip this morning took in forty-seven miles of the Burlington north of Creston, "This forty-seven miles," said Division Surailroad more cars of grain and live stock than any forty-seven miles on the Burlington system." The towns along this stub line, though small, are decidedly prosperous with a lowa. farming and stock raising section back of them unequalled anywhere in the world, Corn looks better here than in any part of territory covered so far. Stock cattle fairly wallow in rich blue grass. It is farms like these that make good Iowa's boast as the best agricultural state in the Union. The only competition is Davenport, Ottumwa and Des Moines. The rates are day from the family residence, interment any other point. Omaha ought to have their trade and from the kindly expressions everywhere there is little doubt but trade of Omaha jobbers if properly cultivated.

Breakfast at Cumberland. The party breakfasted at Cumberland, where a brass band welcomed them at the station. They were given a very hearty reception by the merchants. Ten-minute stops at Bridgewater and Fontanelle were hardly long enough, delaying the schedule. In rounding up a town everyone scatters to see their customers and in passing see that everyone, big and small, receive buttons and souvenirs. Then the band starts up and soon the whole town is surrounding them. The most fun of all as he scatters samples of candy to the girls and youngsters. Whether O'Brien

Indeed, so well pleased were they with their new-found friends that, although behind time at each stop, they used more than the allotted time, resulting in putting the excursion almost three hours behind on their schedule.
