the Methodist Episcopal church, with a membership of 3,000,000, increased but 50,000 in all of its departments last year. I would like to know why the Church of Christ, numbering 1,500,000, and undenominational in character, increased over 30,000 the first three months of the present year? I haven't the figures for the other months. Be it remembered that the Church of Christ is battling against all these human phases of the church that cause us to be divided. The gospel, in its simple purity, has not lost its saving power, but its effectiveness is destroyed by the 509 and more ways in which it is presented.
