Cotton Market. NEW YORK, July 15.-COTTON-The market opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 5 points under cables bet-ter than expected and moderate covering by room shorts. The market was generally considered favorable, however, and there was a lack of bull support, so that after an interval of steadiness, during which options were sold up to a level of 366 points higher, the market closed slightly easier, prices going back to about last night's level. There was little feature to the early trading and operations seemed to be more of an evening-up character than to repre-sent fresh ventures on either side of the account.
