State Treasurer Holds On to Money in Permanent School Fund.

LEGISLATURE CANNOT APPROPRIATE IT

Accident Reveals a Pathetle Story of a Woman's Pluck in Adversity-Hailroad Agent in the Tolla.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN. July 20,-(Special.)-State Treasurer Mortensen does not propose that the legislature shall hereafter assume that it has any right to make appropriations from either the permanent school fund or the permanent university fund. During the last session the legislature sought to include in H. R. 445 several appropriations for the repayment to county treasurers of several amounts erroneously paid in by them to be credited to the permanent school fund. In the bill the claims against the permanent school fund are as follows: Fred Lehmkuhl, $148.43; P. McGinnie, $16.08; P. D. McCormick, $87.02; C. F. Scharman, $4,37. One claim was allowed against the permanent university fund amounting to $30.50, in favor of M. E. Butterfield. Recently the auditor drew warrants for the above amounts, but Treasurer Mortensen, in a letter received by Auditor Weston today, refused to countersign them, and sets forth the reasons as follows:

In the matter of countersigning these certain warrants I have carefully examined the constitution and laws pertaining to these funds and am of the opinion that the legislature had no authority to pay these claims as provided in H. R. 465, out of the above named trust funds. If the legislature had no lawful authority to make the appropriation to pay these claims out the above named trust funds. If the legislature had no lawful authority to make the appropriation to pay these claims out of the permanent trust funds, the warrants cannot be paid if countersigned, but the act of countersigning them would be taken and considered an acknowledgment that the warrants were a legal liability against the state. The serious question therefore is, has the legislature authority to appropriate the permanent school fund? I understand that it is claimed by you, and others, that because certain county trensurers by mistake paid this money into the permanent school fund, the amount so paid by mistake is not permanent school money, and therefore can be taken out by the legislature as a claim against the state by appropriation. It appears to me that by the act of attempting to appropriate the permanent school fund it was admitting that this money, which was erroneously paid into the treasury, and also into this fund, is a part of the permanent school fund it cannot be taken out, even by appropriation. The supreme court, in State ex rel. Norfolk Beet Sugar Company against Moore, 50 Neb. S. says: "An appropriation within the meaning of our constitution is a setting apart by law of a certain sum from the public revenue for a specific purpose, so that the executive officers are authorized to expend that sum, and no more, for that purpose and no other." I do not consider the permanent school fund public revenue within the meaning of the above definition.

The supreme court, in State against Bart-

The supreme court, in State against Bart-The supreme court, in State against hart-jey, 29 Neb. 384, after reciting at length section 9 of article vill of the constitution, says: "The foregoing provision prohibits the loaning or investing of any moneys be-longing to any of the permanent educa-tional funds of the state, except on United States or state securities, etc." The mon-tional funds of the state, except on United States or state securities, etc." The moneys in these several funds the constitution has impressed with a trust character, and the legislature is powerless to authorize them to be devoted to any purpose not within the scope of the constitutional provision quoted. See also City of Hastings against Thomas, 8 Neb. 163, and Roberts against Reeder, 5 Neb. 206.

In State ex rel. Crounse against Bartley, 40 Neb, 208, the court in syllabus says: "By section 1, article viii, of the state constitution, the sole power to manage, loan and invest the permanent school fund of the state is lodged with a board composed of the governor, secretary of state, treasurer, attorney general and commissioner of public lands and buildings, and said board comnot be deprived of its functions by legislative enactment."

Section 164 of the 1901 revenue law providea:

If any county treasurer shall have paid, or may hereafter pay, into the state treasury, any greater sum or sums of money than are legally and justly due from such collector, after deducting abatements and commissions, the auditor shall issue his warrant for the amount so overpaid, which shall be paid out of the fund or funds so overpaid on said warrant.

Reveals Sad Story. Unusually pathetic is the life story re vealed in this city today by the misfortune which befell Mrs. Charles Pierce of 2407 O street, who sustained painful injuries in an endeavor to avoid a conflagration in her home. She had placed upon a gasoline stove a pan of paraffine, which she intanded to use in the making of some artificial flowers. While it was melting she had her attention attracted to a dog that appeared to be mad in the hall just outside her rooms, and in the ensuing excitement she forgot the paraffine until she turned to discover a blaze. Flames were reaching almost or quite to the ceiling In a frenzy of fear for herself and her two little children Mrs. Pierce grasped the flaming pan and rushed with it to the front window, which opens just above the sidewalk, and to avoid injuring anyone who might be passing, she held to it until she had peered down to see that she might not | marry, throw it upon the heads of anyone below Finding the way clear she threw it into

She was helped from place to place by the authorities, and just before she reached Omaha a collection was taken up on the train for herself and children that netted her a handsome sum. When she reached Lincoln she had 19, with which she determined to establish a home until she could hear from her husband, from whom she has not heard how for five weeks. She bought such furniture as was absolutely necessary and rented two rooms in the Hughes block. She has made some money since she came here by making artificial flowers and selling them, at which she is proficient, and she has some orders ahead which she was preparing to fill when the misfortunes of this morning came to swell the sum total of her discouragements.

The dove of peace once again hovers over the great white dome of the state house. The pure food commission, which has been embattled against the state library commission, has finally perfected an entente cordiale with its antagonist and the rooms on the third floor which have been the bone of controversy will be divided, one part to be used as a food commission laboratory, while the library commission gets the lion's share of the space.

Railroad Agent in the Toils.

For three years the agent of the Burlington railroad at Endicott, Neb., R. A. In the body of the opinion, on page 203, the court, after reciting the above constitutional provision, says: "The authority thus conferred upon the board of commissioners, or Board of Educational Lands and Funds, as it is usually called, the legislature is powerless to take away."

The Board of Educational Lands and Funds and or the egislature appears to have "the sole power to manage" these funds. The attempted appropriation out of these funds to pay claims for money overpaid into the treasury was, in my opinion, in violation of section I, article vill, of the constitution, and therefore null and void and for this reason I must decline to counterly the sole power to make the warrants, which are herewith returned.

By this ruse he escaped detection until last week, when a merchant, whose store had been robbed several months ago, visited Endicott and noted the fact that a woman was wearing silk of a pattern which he had imported and which he was quite certain was stolen from his place. Investigation followed and the agent was arrested and confessed.

THREE OTHERS IN THE BOAT ARE SAVED

Henvy Wind Comes Suddenly When Boat Has Sails Set Full and Overturns the Craft Without Warning.

Through the everturning of a sailboat on Lake Manawa at 5:40 yesterday afternoon D. W. Annis, who resided at the home of O. J. Cooley, 1248 South Tenth street Omnha, was drowned.

Annis, with Miss Clabaugh, Miss Bessie Cooley and B. K. King, had gone out in the boat during the afternoon. When the storm came up during the evening it seems they were unprepared for it, for the wind caught the sails and overturned the boat, The two young women and King fell out into the water when the boat capsized, but in some way Annis managed to retain his hold on the boat. He held onto the rail for a brief time and rested his feet on the centerboard. He was seen to release his hold and drop into the water, striking out toward the Kursaal. After he had swam a short distance he disappeared and was seen no more. A professional diver was sent for, but up to a late hour last night the body had not been recovered. Comes from Illinois.

Up to about five months ago Annis was a resident of Aurora, Ill. At that time he moved to this city to take charge of the interests of the Dominion Publishing com pany of Chicago. At the time of his death he held the position of state agent for that concern. His mother and sister live in Aurora at the present time, but his father is dead. Annis attended the University of Wisconsin. He was admitted to member ship in the Council Bluffs Boat club Mon day night a week ago.

While King and the two young women in the party were clinging to the overturned boat an electric launch in charge of Lewis Peterson passed. King is said to have hailed the launch and asked if the occupants were not going to make an effort to rescue them, but no attention was paid to the summons and the launch passed on. Harry Dyer and O. Wife's Advice.

Mr. A. U. Grouby, editor of the Abbe ville, Ala., News, has the following kind words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy: "Several days ago I was taken with something like bilious dysentery in a malignant form. I took medicines for two or three days, but got worse all the time. We had a bottle of Chamber lain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and my wife prevailed upon me to take a dose. The one dose relieved me within an hour and I have not been troubled with it since. I consider this the mest wonderful bowel remedy I have ever

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of priceless value to all women sent free. Address BRADFIELD REGULATOR OO., Atlanta, Ga.
