Second Trade Excursion Will Start Out Next Tues lay Morning.

NORTHWESTERN IOWA TO BE IN THE FIELD

Itinerary Shows Towns to Be Visited Population and Time of Arrival and Departure of the Special Train.

The Commercial club excursion into northwestern Iowa, over the lines of the Northwestern railroad, will leave the Union station in this city at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, July 28, and during three days following will cover 500 miles of rail, reaching the furthermost point at Harlan, 135 miles from Omaha. While Creston, Red Oak and Shenandoah, visited on the last trip, were perhaps larger towns, the average for the small towns on the coming trip is better than that in the southern portion of the state. It is a country particularly High school, Judge Estelle deciding that tributary to Omaha, principally because its he had not shown clearly that he was enrallway connections are such as to make titled to the credits which would be suffquick trips to this city possible. I took medicines for two or three days, but got worse all the time. We had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and my wife prevailed upon me to take a dose. The one dose relieved me within an hour and I have not been troubled with it since. I consider this the most wonderful bowel remedy I have ever

To Appear Beture Stare Board.

The members of the tax committee of the Real Estate exchange and the attorney employed by the Board of County Commissioners are getting ready to go to Lincoln Wednesday. Mr. Breen will be accompanied by W. G. Ure, secretary of the committee; W. G. Shriver, D. V. Sholes, F. H. Myars and probably by Thomas S. Boyd, chief clerk of the tax department of the county clerk's office. It is expected that the hearing will last all day and that the committee will show good reasons why the tax rate for state purposes in Douglas county should be much lower than in other counties of the state.

THE BENNETT COMPANY. SUTPHEN GETS NO DIPLOMA

Judge Estelle Decides Against the Cadet and Case Will Be Appealed.

Joy Sutphen lost the first round in his fight in the courts for a diploma from the Omaha cient to secure the certificate of proficiency. The case was before the court for sev eral days and during that time considerable to enlighten the judge fully as to the mode of procedure. In summing up the case the

"I cannot say that I am fully enlightened South Omaha will use one car and there is as to the present system of marking grades city. The book of the excursion will be what familiar with the old system, where pupils might be perfect in all of their studies and still come into contact with a shovel or a switch if they did not obey orders of the teachers or rules of the school. We used to start out with nothing and if we were perfect in our studies we received 100 per cent, but that did not mean that we would be exempt from punishment if we did not behave ourselves. But the present system, I must confess, is somewhat beyond me and the evidence does not make it plain."

The hearing was not ended without a show of feeling in which Judge Estelle took a prominent part, 'Intimating rather than saying that he had not been treated fairly by G. W. Shields, attorney for Sutphen. After the case had been submitted and the arguments were being reviewed by the judge the attorney broke into the remarks by saying that, according to the evidence introduced, the relator would be entitled to at least 34 points, 32 being necessary to secure a diploma. In support of this he called attention to the record of the fourth year's work, and upon the face of the record his contention was borne out, but in his argument he had not referred to this point and the judge had not considered it. The judge therefore was taken by surprise, but remarked in an injured tone, that this point did not make the matter clear to him yet, and continued his remarks, concluding by saying that the motion of the respondent for a denial of the writ would be sustained and the case dismissed. Judge Shields immediately gave notice of a motion for a new trial and said that in case it was denied the case would be appealed to the supreme court.
