Jump Onto the Distillers for an Even Dozon Tally Marks.

Everyhody in the Rourke Family, Except the Pitcher, Has a Good Time Fattening Up His Batting Average.

MAKE EIGHTEEN HITS DURING THE GAME

The Distillers put a cute little boy by the name of Killian in the box yesterday and Pa Bill's children did sundry things to him. It was a wicked day, with both teams changed around so much that they had to put tags on the players so as to know where they really belonged. But the arrangement worked like a charm for the Omahas and they got a big bunch of hits through that wouldn't generally have gone farther than the diamond limits. With Genius in the outer garden and Welch on first and Thomas out at short things were fairly good for Omaha, and they worked hard, despite their five errors.

Just how it all happened is hard to understand, as it was as much of a three ring circus as that at Twentieth and Paul and something doing in all three rings all of the time. As a real show it probably had Ringling's aggregation backed off of the schoolroom globe, and even Bill Wilson's yawp was a ringer for the pipe organ. Then McCarthy, the genial representative of The Hague peace conference, kept everybody pleasant wringing the welts. out of his anatomy that the foul tips left every little while. Another sight was the veteran Preston, who soldiered for a ninety-day call in the garden for Omaha, but who really labored yesterday until the perspiration stood out on his countenance as big as any hallstones ever written Peorina Get Four Hits. When it was all counted up at the end it was plain to see that Omaha had the game by a score of 15 to 4 and that Peorla had only scraped up four hits off of Benny Henderson. It certainly was revenge.

Killian was a little wild at the start and was touched up for eight swats of various size, with a few passes and errors, blossomed into six large and julcy runs during three innings. Then the Distillers grabbed three tallies by the scruff of the feathers. That all came about by Henderson taking pity on Preston's batting average and furnishing him transportation to first, Lazotte singled and Wilson drew a double. That let in two runs, and Wilson scored on a sacrifice and a couple of errors. In the next they garnered one more run on Shugart's errors, a hit, a sac rifice and a fielder's choice. That was all for Bill Wilson's tribe.

Omaha grabbed its runs every new and then, and in the seventh did a star perormance of batting that brought tears of sympathy to Billy Hart's eyes out in right garden. By the way, Hart wore a beautiful pair of blue goggles out there and looked like a chauffeur or some other lawiess organization. Gonding started out the seventh with a single and Henderson sacrificed. Carter drew a single, Genins a triple, Miller a single, Shugart a double and Welch a single before Killian could get straightened out, and then the next two men flew out to Walter and it was all off with the Rourkeites and five runs for their Doctor: "Perhaps; but I don't know it. I do know that Schlitz beer is pure."

Doctor: "I mean free from germs. Impurity means bacilli; and in a saccharine product like beer bacilli multiply rapidly. I do not recommend a beer that may contain them."

Patient: "How do you know that Schlitz beer

Doctor: "I have seen it brewed. Cleanliness is carried to extremes in that brewery. The beer is cooled in plate glass rooms, in filtered air. before it is marketed." The beer is then filtered. Yet, after all these precautions, every bottle is sterilized - by Pasteur's process-after it is sealed. I know that beer treated in that way is pure."

Patient: "And is pure beer good for me?"

Doctor: "It is good for anybody. The hops form a tonic; the barley a food. The trifle of alcohol is an aid to digestion. And the custom of drinking beer supplies the body with fluid to wash out the waste. People who don't drink beer seldom drink enough fluid of any kind. A great deal of ill-health is caused by the lack of it."

Patient: "But doesn't beer cause biliousness?"

Doctor: "Not Schlitz Beer. Biliousness is caused by 'green' beer-beer that is insufficiently aged. But Schlitz beer is always aged for months

The Detroit Jockey club claims that Farley fraudulently entered Almiess as Sarah Black on June 16, at the Grosse Pointe track.
