the election of a new pope, said:

Oreglia's Ride Excites Comment.

Much comment was occasioned at the Vatican by a drive which Cardinal Oreglia took through the Vatican garden this afternoon. The workers in the more quiet precincts of the gardens were startled when they saw the well known papal carriage coming, surrounded by Swiss and Noble guards. Their hearts jumped as they saw the face of the cardinal looking out at them. The camerlingo did not appear to be satisfied with what he saw. He shook his head, exclaiming dismally: "What up in this melancholy place, I should die within a year." The gossips of the Vatican now wish to know if this means that the cardinal would not accept the papacy, which seems practically impossible, or, accepting, would refuse to be the voluntary, traditional Vatican prisoner. It seems that the better interpretation of his remarks would be that if made pope he would institute great changes in the gardens. At the meeting of the congregation today Cardinal Satolli asked when the conclave would be opened. Cardinal Oregita replied that he thought on the evening of Friday, July 21, all the cardinals might enter their cells and be ready for the first meeting of the conclave on August 1. Mgr. Farabulin, the famous Latinist whom Gladstone often consulted and of concerning Latin, has been requested to write the oratio brevis, the Latin eulogy on the late pontiff, which will be buried with him. The congregation also heard the secret reports from the nuncias at Vienna, Paris, Munich and Madrid. It approved the charity bequeathed by Leo to the poor, dividing it as follows: Ten thou-

Tonight's Italia says the alleged confirmation of the story that Cardinal Gibbons has succeeded in transforming Cardinal Richard, the archbishop of Paris, into an opponent of Cardinal Rampolia is baseless. It was declared that Cardinal Gibbons did not leave Cardinal Richard while in Paris, that they left together for Rome, traveled together and will lodge together at the States and Canada. house of the Order of St. Sulpice. As a matter of fact only the fact that they will lodge together is true. They did not start for Rome together. Cardinal Richard is coming via Modena and Cardinal Gibbons via St. Gothard pass. I still think good stocks are good; that is to say, crops are good, the country is still very prosperous, and I see no reason for worry over the occurrences on the stock market, such as happened today."

Keene Not Hard Hit.

James R. Keene tonight, in his apartments in the Waldorf-Astoria, talked of the failure of his zon-in-law's firm. "My own fortune and the fortune of my family is not impaired," said Mr. Keene, "I lost money today, for I was the largest unsecured creditor of the firm of Talbot J. Taylor, but, as I said, my fortune is safe.' "How about the report that you very recently settled $5,000,000 on your wife, $5,000,-000 on your son and $5,000,000 on your daughter?" Mr. Keene was asked.

"I won't say anything about the amounts," replied Mr. Keene. "I guess I'll lose about $1,500,000 through this failure," he continued. "I had no connection with the firm except that I did business there. "I would have seen him through this thing, but the market was so gloomy and discouraging, with not a bright outlook anywhere, that I began to think about myself and decided it would be best not to put up any more money for the firm."

"What are the liabilities of your son-inlaw's firm," was asked. "I don't know," Mr. Keene answered. "I have not learned any of the details yet. All I know is that I am the largest creditor. Outside of myself the principal creditors are banks and they will lose nothing, because there was no loan with any bank without a 20 per cent margin of securities. Some of the banks wanted fresh margins, but I won't say anything about that. I won't put up any more money. I never saw such a hopeless market as we have, When you can get such stocks as United Today's failures on the exchange were the first since May 5 of last year. That day three firms, all of them involved in the Webb-Meyer syndicate, went under. Two of them resumed business.

Keene's Operations Vast.

Mr. Keene's operations in stocks are too umerous to detail and much mystery sually attaches to them. But the market nanagement of the United States Steel stocks on behalf of the syndicate and the onduct of a Southern Pacific pool are the operations with which his name are most notably connected. The accumulation, according to common better, of 300,000 Southern Pacific shares, with a consejuent rise in the price above 80, were pased upon the assumption that Southern Pacific bonds were to be issued for that road's improvement and the net earnings applied to dividends. Talbot J. Taylor & Co., as representatives of the pool, felt emselves powerful enough to challenge the Union Pacific party's refusal to adopt this system, and to carry the quarrel to the courts. The animosities and resentments engendered by that quarrel are supcosed to have added to the weight of the been referred to Judge Advocate General firm's difficulties and to have aided in bringing it down.

DUBLIN VISIT DRAWS TO AUSPICIOUS END

Royalties Will See Belfast, Where Preparations Are on Foot to Eclipse Earlier Welcome.

DUBLIN, July 24.-King Edward and Queen Alexandra separately visited a number of pulbic institutions today. The scenes of enthusiasm witnessed during the previous days of their visit was repeated by the crowds lining the routes followed by the king. His majesty first visited the dwellings

ouilt for working people by Lord Iveagh

there by Lord Ardilaun (Arthur Guinness) and accompanied by them and Irish Secretary Wyndham entered the tenements and talked freely with the inhabitants. The king then went to the famous St. Patrick's cathedral and received an address from the chapter. After lunching at the castle the king and queen visited the Irish constabulary depot, where a drill exhibition was given in their honor Maynooth College Visited.

Later in the day they went to Maynooth college, attended by Chief Secretary for Ireland Wyndham and his suite. They were received by the archbishops of Dublin, Cassal and Tuam and twenty other eccleslantics.

In replying to the address presented, the king expressed his hearty thanks and said: king expressed his hearty thanks and said:

I highly value your true appreciation of the strength of the strength of the strength and honor of my empire and who bring such admirable gifts of mind and heart to the enrichment of the national life. It was with sadness that I listened to your reference to the venerable pontiff who has just passed away, leaving a memory that if will long be cherished far beyond the church of which he was the exalted head. I shall ever retain a pathetic recollection of my interview with him and the kindly interest he showed in the welfare of my people and my empire.

Wear Mourning for Pope. It was noticed that the king wore black necktie and the queen and Princes Victoria half mourning. The reyal party emained nearly an hour at Maynooth and hen returned to the vice regal lodge. Archbishop Walsh was invited to the royal dinner party there, but was unable o attend. The evening party given by their majesties at the vice regal lodge to day practically closed the visit to Dublin, which has been most successful, and devoid of a single untoward incident. Everywhere the greatest devotion and enthusiasm was shown. No English sovereign ever before entered the walls of Maynooth. The king's eference to the pope was much appreclated. Their majesties go in the morning to Mount Stewart, where they will be the guests of Lord Londonderry until Monday Thence they go to Belfast, where the most slaborate preparations have been made.
