

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year, $4.00...

DELIVERED BY CARRIER: Daily Bee (without Sunday), per copy, 1c...

OFFICES: Omaha—The Bee Building, 15th and M Streets.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION: State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss.: George B. Tschuck, secretary of the Bee Publishing Company...

Net total sales, $92,884. Net average daily circulation, 30,075. GEORGE B. TSCHUCK, Notary Public.

OUTLETS FOR SURPLUS PRODUCTS.

A speech that has attracted a good deal of attention is that of Representative Levering of Massachusetts before the national convention of the Furniture Association of America.

He declared that the problem of larger foreign markets for our surplus of manufactured goods is already a question of national importance.

With the other trunk lines converging at this point the addition of the Chicago Great Western will give Omaha six roads of the first magnitude direct to Chicago and the lakes.

In no other state would the governor be expected to exercise any more than a supervisory authority over the oil inspection in the same manner that he sees to the enforcement of all other laws on the statute books.

OMAHA AS A DISTRIBUTING CENTER.

The early completion of the Chicago Great Western, which is now not only assured, but in sight, and the operation of trains on that line between Chicago and the Missouri river at this point ought to contribute in a large measure to increase Omaha's already established prestige as a distributing center.

The study of a good railroad map will quickly show that no city of its size in the country has such a network of railroads focalizing in it.

COMING IRRIGATION CONGRESS.

The call is out for the Eleventh National Irrigation congress, which is to be held at Ogden beginning September 15 next, for the discussion of practical irrigation problems as they affect conditions in western states.

PREPARING FOR ACTION.

The corporations that are subject to investigation by the new government bureau will soon hear from it, circular letters containing the questions which the bureau is authorized to submit being in course of preparation.

UNARMED, YET MIGHTY.

Pope Leo XIII established Moral as Superior to Material Power as New York World.

Slow-Fire Cannon.

Mr. Cannon shows a cautious disinclination to explode prematurely.

What the Farmer Needs.

The harvest season each year brings about a tremendous demand for labor in the fields for a very short period.

either if they don't quit complaining about being oppressed. What the Russians like is a man who will patiently let himself be fished and pretend he likes it while the operation is in progress.

Russia's Fanny Idea.

The punishment of subordinate officials will scarcely convince the world that Russia is sorry for the Kishineff affair so long as it permits Minister von Piewke to tell the Jews that they will catch something worse if they don't watch out.

Hopes for Hawaii.

The legislature of Hawaii, running riot in the full flush of youth, is supplying us with scandal after scandal.

Mr. Hanna and the President.

Unlikely, Mr. Hanna has felt drawn toward this project, some measure by the stupid efforts of the enemies of the latter to make trouble.

From Boose to Beer.

The temperance agitator would have us believe that things are growing darker from their point of view, but there is one hopeful phase of the affair.

Rude Awakening a Salutory Lesson to the Reckless Speculators.

The recent weakness in the stock market is accompanied by information from many sources to the effect that a general pause in the prodigality of expenditure which was a marked characteristic of American life for a year or two.

THE IMMIGRATION QUESTION.

The maneuvers which are to take place off the coast of New England from the last week in July until September 1 will furnish the joint army and navy board with material for work.

THE IMMIGRATION QUESTION.

It is urged that the immigration of today is made up largely of a different class of people from those who used to come to America.

THE IMMIGRATION QUESTION.

It is urged that the immigration of today is made up largely of a different class of people from those who used to come to America.

THE IMMIGRATION QUESTION.

It is urged that the immigration of today is made up largely of a different class of people from those who used to come to America.

THE IMMIGRATION QUESTION.

It is urged that the immigration of today is made up largely of a different class of people from those who used to come to America.

TALK OF THE STATE PRESS.

Grand Inland Independent: The socialists will have a state ticket in Nebraska again this year and have already filed their names.

Springfield Monitor: A district judge in Omaha refused to compel Omaha high school authorities to grant a diploma to a student who had been expelled.

Kearney Hub: Reports received by the state superintendent from the junior normal schools throughout the state have been very pleasing to that official.

Auburn Herald: The new law against selling, giving or furnishing tobacco to minors under the age of 18 is now in effect.

Minneapolis Times: The temperance agitator would have us believe that things are growing darker from their point of view.

Omaha Journal: The recent weakness in the stock market is accompanied by information from many sources to the effect that a general pause in the prodigality of expenditure.

Columbus Telegram: Delegates to the Douglas county democratic convention will not be selected by democratic voters.

Omaha Journal: The recent weakness in the stock market is accompanied by information from many sources to the effect that a general pause in the prodigality of expenditure.

Columbus Telegram: Delegates to the Douglas county democratic convention will not be selected by democratic voters.

Omaha Journal: The recent weakness in the stock market is accompanied by information from many sources to the effect that a general pause in the prodigality of expenditure.

Columbus Telegram: Delegates to the Douglas county democratic convention will not be selected by democratic voters.

Omaha Journal: The recent weakness in the stock market is accompanied by information from many sources to the effect that a general pause in the prodigality of expenditure.

Columbus Telegram: Delegates to the Douglas county democratic convention will not be selected by democratic voters.

Omaha Journal: The recent weakness in the stock market is accompanied by information from many sources to the effect that a general pause in the prodigality of expenditure.

Columbus Telegram: Delegates to the Douglas county democratic convention will not be selected by democratic voters.

Omaha Journal: The recent weakness in the stock market is accompanied by information from many sources to the effect that a general pause in the prodigality of expenditure.

Columbus Telegram: Delegates to the Douglas county democratic convention will not be selected by democratic voters.

Omaha Journal: The recent weakness in the stock market is accompanied by information from many sources to the effect that a general pause in the prodigality of expenditure.

Columbus Telegram: Delegates to the Douglas county democratic convention will not be selected by democratic voters.

Omaha Journal: The recent weakness in the stock market is accompanied by information from many sources to the effect that a general pause in the prodigality of expenditure.

Columbus Telegram: Delegates to the Douglas county democratic convention will not be selected by democratic voters.

HITS OF WASHINGTON LIFE.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

Episodes and incidents at National Capital: A capital sketched on the spot. An interesting relic from the battlefield of first Bull Run was shipped from Washington to the Michigan state capital at Lansing on the forty-second anniversary of the civil war.

may belong to it. The membership is limited to 200, which, unfortunately, will make it necessary for New York's other 10,000 millionaires to go on the waiting list.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Princess Henry of Prussia has invited the American sculptress, Cadwallader Guild, to visit her at Kiel, where the princess will sit for a bust statuette.

Eugene W. Ware, Jr., son of the United States pension commissioner, with twenty-five young men of Topeka, Kas., have gone to the harvest fields of Ellis county.

Maeterlinck says that it is easy to find in German theaters more original, more interesting, sincere and profound works than any of the great French successes.

Dr. George F. Hall, pastor of Bush Temple, Chicago, in a sermon last Sunday said: "Every Christian should read the Bible, and pray; go to church, and pay."

Alfred H. Smith, the new general manager of the New York Central railway, began his career as a messenger boy in the Cleveland office of the Lake Shore at a salary of $4 a week.

Dr. Toyokichi Iyanaga, a Japanese school and government official and an authority on the eastern question, is delivering a series of lectures before the summer students of the University of Chicago on Japan and China this week.

A correspondent of the North China Daily News, who recently had occasion to see the emperor and the empress dowager of China near by, describes him as looking lean, melancholy and timid, white, with her hair in a chignon, eyes, double chin and rosy color, looked like an energetic, vivacious woman.

Frau Charlotte Wechsler of Stuttgart attained her hundredth birthday on June 8. She has been a widow for sixty-four years. The mayors of Stuttgart and Ulm personally presented her with a diamond tiara, and the King of Wurtemberg sent her a magnificent bound Bible through her grandson, Major Fabre du Four.

Alfred Harnsworth of the London Daily Mail, William Hill of the Westminster Gazette, and Maurice Ernst of the Vienna Freiheit, are announced as editors of a new international encyclopaedia of journalism, to be published in London and in the English language, but to deal with the history of the newspaper in all days and its present development.

In recognition of the success attained by the St. Petersburg Young Men's Christian Association, known there as the Society for Moral Improvement of Young Men, and founded by James Stokes of New York three years ago, the czar has conferred upon Mr. Stokes the Order of St. Stanislaus of the first class. Count Cassini, in delivering the insignia of the order to Mr. Stokes, stated that the St. Petersburg association had rendered the most efficient and popular organization in the city and numbers over 1,000 members; it cannot receive more, as its rooms are constantly crowded beyond their capacity.

SUMMER SMILES.

De sayn' is—you mustn't lay up for yo' self, mightily handy we do ballin' settin on de front do step—Anta's Constitution.

There are animals purporting to be whales a-swim in the Gulf of Mexico. All whales will easily pack a dozen at a time into a sardine box—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

"What is the difference between a woman's whisk club and a man's poker club?" "Why, in one you get home to dinner and in the other to breakfast."—Detroit Free Press.

William—You must remember, my dear, that my taste is better than yours. His Dear—I'm not sure that you are so considerate to consider that you married me and I married you.—Boston Globe.

Little Hiram—Grampa, did you see the two-tailed cow in the field of all the Farmer Bumpercrop—No, B'ingus, I been so busy harvestin' I didn't even get ter see the cow. I'm sure the sideshow—Kansas City Journal.

The Aunt—And how was your birthday party, Archie? The Auntie, it was the finest I ever had. Why, I got such a terrible stomach trouble that I could not go to school for three days.—Brooklyn Life.

"What I want," said the coy maid of love, or love's laughing girl, is a hat that will suit my complexion." "Oh," exclaimed the milliner, with sudden inspiration, "I've just a hand-made hat in the window that I am sure will be just what you want."—Chattanooga News.

"I want 50 cents more," said the keeper of the hat shop, "but I'll give you a hat that will suit your complexion." "Oh," exclaimed the milliner, with sudden inspiration, "I've just a hand-made hat in the window that I am sure will be just what you want."—Chattanooga News.

Where moon the wild waves, saying the things they've often said, I must be out for conquest, dear mother. It's naught to you, dear mother, for I have got your man. But I must make my lucky this season, if I can! So wake me early, mother. While yet the shadows stalk; I must be up to practice A captivating walk!

I must get up on rules, dear, to start the season's race, For time is feet, dear mother, and I wax old space. So wake me early, mother, and don't neglect to get up, my four-thirty, lest you perchance forget! That gentle spring is on us, And we must be in the sun! The banner that announces The newest Summer Girl!

THE NEWEST SUMMER GIRL.

Baltimore News. Moth-bell my nagan, mother, and put away my hat. With feathers all around it—I'll have no need for that. My muff and furs, dear mother, pray put them on the shelf. For I am ready, mother, to innovate myself.

The gentle spring is coming, And in a chirping whirl The merry birds are calling The newest Summer Girl!

Pray hustle out my straw hat, my belt and shirtwaist suit. For summer's coming, mother, and I must have my "best"!!! Dig up my last year's "tribbles" and polish them up, dear mother, for I don't want to forget my fan, dear, for it has work to do. When the season's time is coming, When on the crowded beach I must be designated, I must have my "best"!!!

Where moon the wild waves, saying the things they've often said, I must be out for conquest, dear mother. It's naught to you, dear mother, for I have got your man. But I must make my lucky this season, if I can! So wake me early, mother. While yet the shadows stalk; I must be up to practice A captivating walk!

I must get up on rules, dear, to start the season's race, For time is feet, dear mother, and I wax old space. So wake me early, mother, and don't neglect to get up, my four-thirty, lest you perchance forget! That gentle spring is on us, And we must be in the sun! The banner that announces The newest Summer Girl!

The combined squadrons will be under command of Rear Admiral Barker. His division commanders will be Rear Admirals Wise, Coghlan of "Hoch der Kaiser" fame and Eads. When these manuevers are completed the ships will start out to sea for tactical manuevers and target practice. They will return on August 15, when a spectacular review will be held by President Roosevelt, Secretary Moody and Admiral Dewey. This will take place in deep water off Oyster Bay, and must be a stirring sight to behold. In September the submarine boats are to be tested off Newport. The facts learned about them will be of incalculable value to the board. If they prove valuable in harbor defense the board will have to assign to them a place not now reserved for naval strategy. Nearby the ships will be equipped with wireless telegraph instruments and stations on shore will establish a thorough test of that means of communication.

Misery for Millionaires. Chicago Record-Herald: Misery for Millionaires. New York has a new club which has been made so expensive that only millionaires may belong to it. The membership is limited to 200, which, unfortunately, will make it necessary for New York's other 10,000 millionaires to go on the waiting list.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Princess Henry of Prussia has invited the American sculptress, Cadwallader Guild, to visit her at Kiel, where the princess will sit for a bust statuette.

Eugene W. Ware, Jr., son of the United States pension commissioner, with twenty-five young men of Topeka, Kas., have gone to the harvest fields of Ellis county.

Maeterlinck says that it is easy to find in German theaters more original, more interesting, sincere and profound works than any of the great French successes.

Dr. George F. Hall, pastor of Bush Temple, Chicago, in a sermon last Sunday said: "Every Christian should read the Bible, and pray; go to church, and pay."

Alfred H. Smith, the new general manager of the New York Central railway, began his career as a messenger boy in the Cleveland office of the Lake Shore at a salary of $4 a week.

Dr. Toyokichi Iyanaga, a Japanese school and government official and an authority on the eastern question, is delivering a series of lectures before the summer students of the University of Chicago on Japan and China this week.

A correspondent of the North China Daily News, who recently had occasion to see the emperor and the empress dowager of China near by, describes him as looking lean, melancholy and timid, white, with her hair in a chignon, eyes, double chin and rosy color, looked like an energetic, vivacious woman.

Frau Charlotte Wechsler of Stuttgart attained her hundredth birthday on June 8. She has been a widow for sixty-four years. The mayors of Stuttgart and Ulm personally presented her with a diamond tiara, and the King of Wurtemberg sent her a magnificent bound Bible through her grandson, Major Fabre du Four.

Alfred Harnsworth of the London Daily Mail, William Hill of the Westminster Gazette, and Maurice Ernst of the Vienna Freiheit, are announced as editors of a new international encyclopaedia of journalism, to be published in London and in the English language, but to deal with the history of the newspaper in all days and its present development.

In recognition of the success attained by the St. Petersburg Young Men's Christian Association, known there as the Society for Moral Improvement of Young Men, and founded by James Stokes of New York three years ago, the czar has conferred upon Mr. Stokes the Order of St. Stanislaus of the first class. Count Cassini, in delivering the insignia of the order to Mr. Stokes, stated that the St. Petersburg association had rendered the most efficient and popular organization in the city and numbers over 1,000 members; it cannot receive more, as its rooms are constantly crowded beyond their capacity.

SUMMER SMILES. De sayn' is—you mustn't lay up for yo' self, mightily handy we do ballin' settin on de front do step—Anta's Constitution.

There are animals purporting to be whales a-swim in the Gulf of Mexico. All whales will easily pack a dozen at a time into a sardine box—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

"What is the difference between a woman's whisk club and a man's poker club?" "Why, in one you get home to dinner and in the other to breakfast."—Detroit Free Press.

William—You must remember, my dear, that my taste is better than yours. His Dear—I'm not sure that you are so considerate to consider that you married me and I married you.—Boston Globe.

Little Hiram—Grampa, did you see the two-tailed cow in the field of all the Farmer Bumpercrop—No, B'ingus, I been so busy harvestin' I didn't even get ter see the cow. I'm sure the sideshow—Kansas City Journal.

The Aunt—And how was your birthday party, Archie? The Auntie, it was the finest I ever had. Why, I got such a terrible stomach trouble that I could not go to school for three days.—Brooklyn Life.

"What I want," said the coy maid of love, or love's laughing girl, is a hat that will suit my complexion." "Oh," exclaimed the milliner, with sudden inspiration, "I've just a hand-made hat in the window that I am sure will be just what you want."—Chattanooga News.

"I want 50 cents more," said the keeper of the hat shop, "but I'll give you a hat that will suit your complexion." "Oh," exclaimed the milliner, with sudden inspiration, "I've just a hand-made hat in the window that I am sure will be just what you want."—Chattanooga News.

Where moon the wild waves, saying the things they've often said, I must be out for conquest, dear mother. It's naught to you, dear mother, for I have got your man. But I must make my lucky this season, if I can! So wake me early, mother. While yet the shadows stalk; I must be up to practice A captivating walk!

I must get up on rules, dear, to start the season's race, For time is feet, dear mother, and I wax old space. So wake me early, mother, and don't neglect to get up, my four-thirty, lest you perchance forget! That gentle spring is on us, And we must be in the sun! The banner that announces The newest Summer Girl!

The combined squadrons will be under command of Rear Admiral Barker. His division commanders will be Rear Admirals Wise, Coghlan of "Hoch der Kaiser" fame and Eads. When these manuevers are completed the ships will start out to sea for tactical manuevers and target practice. They will return on August 15, when a spectacular review will be held by President Roosevelt, Secretary Moody and Admiral Dewey. This will take place in deep water off Oyster Bay, and must be a stirring sight to behold. In September the submarine boats are to be tested off Newport. The facts learned about them will be of incalculable value to the board. If they prove valuable in harbor defense the board will have to assign to them a place not now reserved for naval strategy. Nearby the ships will be equipped with wireless telegraph instruments and stations on shore will establish a thorough test of that means of communication.

Misery for Millionaires. Chicago Record-Herald: Misery for Millionaires. New York has a new club which has been made so expensive that only millionaires may belong to it. The membership is limited to 200, which, unfortunately, will make it necessary for New York's other 10,000 millionaires to go on the waiting list.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Princess Henry of Prussia has invited the American sculptress, Cadwallader Guild, to visit her at Kiel, where the princess will sit for a bust statuette.

Eugene W. Ware, Jr., son of the United States pension commissioner, with twenty-five young men of Topeka, Kas., have gone to the harvest fields of Ellis county.

Maeterlinck says that it is easy to find in German theaters more original, more interesting, sincere and profound works than any of the great French successes.

Dr. George F. Hall, pastor of Bush Temple, Chicago, in a sermon last Sunday said: "Every Christian should read the Bible, and pray; go to church, and pay."

Alfred H. Smith, the new general manager of the New York Central railway, began his career as a messenger boy in the Cleveland office of the Lake Shore at a salary of $4 a week.

Dr. Toyokichi Iyanaga, a Japanese school and government official and an authority on the eastern question, is delivering a series of lectures before the summer students of the University of Chicago on Japan and China this week.

A correspondent of the North China Daily News, who recently had occasion to see the emperor and the empress dowager of China near by, describes him as looking lean, melancholy and timid, white, with her hair in a chignon, eyes, double chin and rosy color, looked like an energetic, vivacious woman.

Frau Charlotte Wechsler of Stuttgart attained her hundredth birthday on June 8. She has been a widow for sixty-four years. The mayors of Stuttgart and Ulm personally presented her with a diamond tiara, and the King of Wurtemberg sent her a magnificent bound Bible through her grandson, Major Fabre du Four.

Alfred Harnsworth of the London Daily Mail, William Hill of the Westminster Gazette, and Maurice Ernst of the Vienna Freiheit, are announced as editors of a new international encyclopaedia of journalism, to be published in London and in the English language, but to deal with the history of the newspaper in all days and its present development.

In recognition of the success attained by the St. Petersburg Young Men's Christian Association, known there as the Society for Moral Improvement of Young Men, and founded by James Stokes of New York three years ago, the czar has conferred upon Mr. Stokes the Order of St. Stanislaus of the first class. Count Cassini, in delivering the insignia of the order to Mr. Stokes, stated that the St. Petersburg association had rendered the most efficient and popular organization in the city and numbers over 1,000 members; it cannot receive more, as its rooms are constantly crowded beyond their capacity.

SUMMER SMILES. De sayn' is—you mustn't lay up for yo' self, mightily handy we do ballin' settin on de front do step—Anta's Constitution.

There are animals purporting to be whales a-swim in the Gulf of Mexico. All whales will easily pack a dozen at a time into a sardine box—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

"What is the difference between a woman's whisk club and a man's poker club?" "Why, in one you get home to dinner and in the other to breakfast."—Detroit Free Press.

William—You must remember, my dear, that my taste is better than yours. His Dear—I'm not sure that you are so considerate to consider that you married me and I married you.—Boston Globe.

Little Hiram—Grampa, did you see the two-tailed cow in the field of all the Farmer Bumpercrop—No, B'ingus, I been so busy harvestin' I didn't even get ter see the cow. I'm sure the sideshow—Kansas City Journal.

The Aunt—And how was your birthday party, Archie? The Auntie, it was the finest I ever had. Why, I got such a terrible stomach trouble that I could not go to school for three days.—Brooklyn Life.

"What I want," said the coy maid of love, or love's laughing girl, is a hat that will suit my complexion." "Oh," exclaimed the milliner, with sudden inspiration, "I've just a hand-made hat in the window that I am sure will be just what you want."—Chattanooga News.

"I want 50 cents more," said the keeper of the hat shop, "but I'll give you a hat that will suit your complexion." "Oh," exclaimed the milliner, with sudden inspiration, "I've just a hand-made hat in the window that I am sure will be just what you want."—Chattanooga News.

Where moon the wild waves, saying the things they've often said, I must be out for conquest, dear mother. It's naught to you, dear mother, for I have got your man. But I must make my lucky this season, if I can! So wake me early, mother. While yet the shadows stalk; I must be up to practice A captivating walk!