The Rourkites played a record-breaking xMcVickers double-header with Milwaukee yesterday afternoon and won both. That was one record broken for the year. Then there were 7,000 people there. Another record. still another season record.

The games possessed all of the attributes of a Venuvius and were noisier than a street fair and a boiler factory combined. Everything was of the sensational order and from the batting to the yawping of the yeeman of Milwaukee and the mix-up between Cockman and Thornton on the Milwaukee bench in the ending of the second game. Sanders was in the box in the first game and did excellent work and kept the hits well scattered, while the locals had a little raily in the sixth which did the things that gave them the game. It was in the third, after two were down, that Harry Welch dropped the throw of Thomas' on first and Cockman his life. Then O'Neill battered the ball for three sacks and one score was in. Thornton went out to Welch and Omaha came to the harvest. Gonding flew out to Gatins and Sanders drew a pretty single, which Carter followed with very scratchy three-bagger. Genins and Miller flew out, and the score was merely

Stone opened the fifth with a scratch hit and reached second on a sacrifice. Cockman was wined off the map at first and O'Neill drew three sacks again. Then Shugart fumbled Thornton's drive and two runs were in. But in the sixth the Rourkites got very busy. Genins fouled out and Mills drove to the fence for two bags. Shugart flew out and Welch walked. Thomas followed with a three-bagger and ome in when O'Neill dropped Hickey's fly. That made it 4 to 2, and so the game ended. Second Game.

The next three Colorado Springs men went down like nine pins and Carter came to the willow. He singled. Genins Kansas City ..... fouled out and Miller smashed out a single. Stugart drew a base on four wide ones and filed the sacks. Welch looked it over Omaha end saw there was something to do, so brought in two with a single. Thomas emulated his example and Hickey scratched. Then Miller fumbled Gonding's poke, and minute later Jawnie and Eddie perpetrated a double theft. Henderson flew out to Stone, and Hickey came in. Carter also flew out. Meanwhile Swormsted had gone the bench to stay there, and Vollendorf had finished with the last four up. In the third the Rourkites gleaned another tally. Then the Creams woke up and took two in the fourth and got rambunctious in the sixth. The Rourkites were getting lazy with one game won and a lead of three and a couple of hits and an error made Pa Bill remove Henderson and substitute Companion. They got two more hits and as many runs off of Companion before it was stopped and then were sent back into the

While the next inning was progressing Thornton and Cockman forgot to talk to Umpire McCarthy and began chewing between themselves about the muff on first, and Cockman was about to introduce a bat into the argument as against Thornton's fists when a cordon of police and Hugh Duffy arrived. Meanwhile everyone was going out nicely at the bat and it was all over but the shouting. Milwaukee has gone back home and the locals open at Peorla tomorrow.
