

ARC-INCANDESCENT CHANGE

New Omaha Thomson-Houston Company Retires from Business.

OMAHA ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER CO

New Concern Takes Over Property of Old One—Is Capitalized for $3,000,000 and Has Bonded Debt of $1,350,000.

There has just been consummated a very important change in the affairs and interests of the Thomson-Houston Electric Light company of this city...

"The situation is simply this," said Mr. Fred Nash yesterday. "The growth of the business of the Thomson-Houston company has been largely in excess of its revenues. It has been spending lots of money, and has necessarily accumulated a large floating debt..."

Improvements Are Necessary.

"We make these improvements because they are immediately necessary to the operation of the plant. We have a force of men at work now preparing for the erection of the new stack and boilers..."

"The company has been reorganized and an entirely new company formed, which takes over all the property of the old company. The new company will be known as The Omaha Electric Light and Power company..."

Douglas County Democracy.

The Douglas County Democracy will hold their fifth annual picnic on next Sunday at Pikes lake. This promises to be a success of a picnic, and everything has been arranged for from the yellow tickets for a half cent each for the round trip from Omaha to Pikes lake and return to the hot road beef sandwich man, Michel of Trans-mississippi exposition fame. Moreover there will be two boat races during the day on which the various democrats are wagering their money. Dave O'Brien will represent the city as against James P. Connolly for the county. The picnic will be held at South Omaha and Dan T. Custer have been in training for a week for the second boat race.
