PEORIA. III., July 30.—(Special Telegram.) the Distillers today and they were clearly outclassed from all points of view. However, they would have had little opportunity to win, for Olmstead pitched in wonderful form. An illustration of his work is aptly toki when the score shows that he succeeded in striking out Shugart three ourke's crippled team was no match for he succeeded in striking out Shugart three times. Schafatall, too, had an off day, being touched for ten hits. Beside he lacked control at critical times and in one Chicago ... instance forced in a run when with a New York couple of hits and a hit batsman filled the

In the second Feoria special would be a second feorial would be a were that a royal pitchers' battle would games today: New York at Boston; result. In the second Peorla secured a sin-gle hit, but in the third it was a singie hit, but in the third it was that Omaha's weakness was made strongly GAMES IN AMERICAN LEAGUE manifest. Hessler led on with a clean single and was advanced by a sacrifice which should have resulted in a double. The ball was hit towards first, but team work was lacking and the ball was handled poorly. Pollowing Schafstall succeeded in hitting two batsmen besides giving a walk, which, with Preston's single, Inckily amounted to but two runs. In the fourth two errors of judgment by infielders, in which Thomas and Welch were chief offenders, permitted two more scores, and thus it was until the end of the game. Olmstead not only had good support but his team hit luckily behind him and the only wonder is that the game was not even more onesided. Manager Rourks has refused to play off yesterday's postponed game torrow, even though a double-header had been advertised. He rightly took advantage of the league constitution in order to play as few games as possible until the team is strengthened. The score:

MORGAN WINS TWO FALLS Throws Roy Terry of Anburn Twice in Succession After Some Work.

E. R. Morgan, the local lightweight wrestler, won the two first falls from Roy Terry of Auburn at Creighton hall last night, although not without a struggle. In the first round Terry was strong and active and it took Morgan twelve minutes and thirty-six seconds to throw him, but the second was won after a little more than a minute had elapsed.

There was a good crowd in attendance and the evening began with a welterweight match between McCarthy and Barnett, which Barnett won after seven minutes and thirty-five seconds. Then Morgan came to his corner, followed a minute later by Terry with his local trainer, Basiny, Morgan looked to be five pounds lighter than Terry, who was as tall and heavier boned. Terry looked rugged and his muscles rippled under the skin, while Morgan was thinner and haggard-looking. From the beginning Terry let Morgan work with him and broke Nelsons, half-Nelsons and every conceivable hold that Morgan secured. He seemed to have things his own way, his superior strength telling, but eventually Morgan secured a half-Nelson and armlock on Terry and sliwity forced him over for the first down. Time, 12.26.

In the second go they started at each other immediately and mixed up for a minute. Everybody believed that Terry had things his own way after his showing before the first fall, but Morgan secured a shotpouch on him and threm him in an instant and won the match. Time, 1.14.

Between the first fall, but Morgan secured a shotpouch on him and second falls Langdon and Vesacek, both heavyweights, wrestled for fifteen minutes without a fall. Both men were strong and active, but did not do much wrestling. Working for holds most of the time.

During the avening Terry is also trying to secure a match with Nast, who is in Butte at present. "Kid Herman" refereed the leaser matches and Peter Loch the main event of the evening.
