Woal Martet. BOSTON, July 31.-WOOL-The Commer-cial Bulletin will say in tomorrow's issue: The wool market is not as active as last work, but is fully as strong. There are fewer transactions. The small mills have been operating: notably of fleece, are small, as leading dealers are heavily sold ahead. Reports from the goods workets are en-couraging and full employment of ma-chinery is assured. The shipments of wool from Boston to date from December 31, 1902 are 133.75242 the, as against 159.184.413 at the same date last year. CATTLE—There was a small run of cattle here today even for a Friday and for the week receipts have also been moderate. Taking the month of July as a while, how-ever, there is an increase over July. 1902, amounting to about 5560 head. This in-request has been brought about by the large supply of corn-feds coming forward, as there were a good many range cattle mar-keted the last half of July a year aso. while this year there have not been enough range cattle on sale to make a market. The local demand, though, has been in food shape, and as a result the large sup-ryly has been well handled. Previous to be demand to 59.52 head, in 1997. Police Court Notes. A haif dozen police officers "knocked" on Tom Philips, colored, who works not, neither does he want to work, with the re-sult that Tom was sentenced to fall for ten days by Judge Berka James Brown, colored, polied out a knife at the carrival grounds Thursday night and made the remark that the police couldn't make him stand back. For this be was fined 200 and costs in police court. At the trial he denied having any intention of cutting the officer or doing any one any harm. The police had to knock him down to get the knife. He paid the fine. Jue German a hack driver, is haunting to get the kille. He paid the fine. Jue Gorman, a back driver, is haunting the police court trying to find some way to culter fare from two laborers whom he hauled from the station yesterday. The men told the city procession that they were at the station when they first met Gorman. He asked them if they wanted to go to a labor sgency and they did They asked him the price for the drive and he told them that was all right. When they got to the agency Gorman found they mean had no mousy. He then drove to the police station and "roured." The police couldn't help him.
