has yet been taken, according to the jobbers and manufacturers who participated. "We went to meet old friends and to Commercial club. "And we made friends and did the country good, as we always do. We are the rainmakers, all right, and the rain followed us about in Iowa, bringing assurances of fine crops. On no former trip have we received such warm receptions. We found friendly feeling for Omaha universal, and an excursion of this kind greatly advances this feeling and at the same time business, for a man naturally places his order with a friend. Part of this territory has been Omaha's before, but part of it was too far east. We figure that with the bridge arbitrary we go seventy-five miles into Iowa, and now we can go 125. We have the advantage in this part of the state over competitors through geographical conditions. can telephone here for goods and get the shipment next morning, while it takes longer from Chleago. ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTIONS TO OMAHANS

Tive miles an hour, so that the telegraph poles looked like the teeth of a comb. It was great running—we came down from Sicux City at a sixty-mile rate. There was prosperlity everywhere and the exception of a little very low ground and even that was good. It is a rich country, with any number of farmers worth $100,000, and heavy bank deposits everywhere.

"At Schleswig and at Holstein we received the most bounteous reception," and Mr. Utt smiled reminescently. "You should have seen the band-but you musn't say anything about it-marching to the depot from the Germania hall, every man with bottles of beer in three or four pockets of his trousers and playing loud. The quartette took well, too, and at McHenry's night, was the most successful tour which farm, near Denison, they had some prize cattle lined up by the track for the South Omaha men. At Dunlap we had the big-gest crowd and a bandstand built in the nake new ones," said Secretary Utt of the street. They took us for a trip on Wall lake, put 200 people on a little steamer and loaded it down so we were afraid to move and a man had to keep pumping out all the way across. It was great. An accident insurance man who was with us did a great husiness, sold about $100,000 worth of policies, I guess."

The next excursion to be undertaken is planned for three or four weeks from now and will be over the territory in centralwestern Iowa, which lies between that covered by the two former tours. The line of the Milwaukee, which has few branches in this section, will be taken, probably to Des Moines and the return made over the Rock Island and its branches, about three days being necessary Atlantic, Audubon, Carson, Guthrie Center and Griswold will
