If Judge Gray acts on a few more strike commissions, he will soon be entitled to be called "the great arbitrator."

From accounts of his royal progress in Ireland it would appear that King Edward was getting to be something of a politician himself.

South Omaha over-lap bonds do not appear to be in very active demand even though they bear 5 per cent interest payable semi-annually.

Booker T. Washington would not be reaping the full reward of fame if his success did not draw out a back fire from some of his own people.

Very little comfort or consolation for the average taxpayer is to be found in the annual levy of state taxes fixed by the State Board of Equalization.

The annual freight car famine that always explains the inability of the railroads to move the grain promptly will put in its appearance in due time.

Now if all the city officials will only form a mutual admiration society binding each member to refrain from impugning the motives of the other, the city hall happy family would serve for exhibition purposes.

The principal in the Hungarian Diet boodie episode declares he was led astray by political adventurers.

The railroads converging in Omaha have been accommodating the jobbers in their efforts to extend their territory.

At the request of the conference at which the proposed new primary system was recommended for adoption by the republican county committee...

The conclave of cardinals is made up of sixty-four members and it takes a two-thirds vote to elect a pope.

When Leo XIII was elevated to the papal primacy no one expected him to live more than five years at most.

State taxes in Nebraska on property assessed at from one-sixth to one-eighth of its actual value average 7 1/2 mills.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier gives it as his opinion that the best way for Canada to remain friendly with the United States is to maintain itself commercially independent.

IS IT RETALIATION?

It was reported some two weeks ago that Russia had decided on retaliatory measures as a result of the Kishinev riot.

Announcement is now made of action by Russia which appears to be regarded as Washington as retaliatory.

Complaints of irregularities in delivery should be addressed to City Circulation Department.

Standing way up in the councils of their party, these eminent Nebraskans doubtless voice the sentiment of the rank and file of Simon pure and unadulterated populism in this state.

Denver is to have a grand jury specially charged with inquiring into the free grants of valuable franchises and other questionable transactions of the local authorities.

The State department officially announces an experimenting with a substitute for fuel instead of going to the roots of the matter and finding a substitute for Baer.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Promoters of the big prospectus dealing in "hundreds of millions" are in an undignified condition with strong symptoms of dyspepsia.

Joe as a Joker. Baltimore American. J. A. Edgerton, the populist who called the new party conference to order in Denver, is a member of the American Press Humorists.

Real Basis for Circulation. Economist has a century-old habit of calculating the circulating medium of a country on a per capita basis.

Gusher Closes-Spouter Starts. Cincinnati Enquirer. The intimation that there is still a chance to save the county routes from the information that there has been a success in the project of Hon. Charles A. Towne's oil wells in Texas.

Railroading and Warfare. Detroit Free Press. During the three months ending March 31 there were 20 per cent more accidents in railroad accidents in the United States.

Give Others a Show. Philadelphia Record. Judge Gray is in general demand as an arbitrator. He complains that he has judicial duties to perform and he cannot regulate the labor troubles of the country.

Good Will for Japan. Brooklyn Times. The attitude of little Japan toward giant Russia should make the world pause in admiration.

Latest in Injunctions. New Hampshire Judge Issues One that is Worth While. Chicago Record-Herald. A New Hampshire judge has issued an injunction that in these days of price inflation entitled to something more than honorable mention.

Example to Blackmellers. New York Tribune. The conviction of the former treasurer of the Journeymen Stonecutters' union after a full and impartial trial will undoubtedly check the predatory operations of unscrupulous walking delegates and their associates.

Kansas and Capt. Baltimore American. Kansas is getting desperate and to prevent a teacher famine from piling up its little record of forbidden marrying and even courting among the feminine instructors of her youth.

Fate of a Reformer. Chicago Chronicle. Still the petard continues to hold the engineer. Out in the gate of Washington a law providing for the "posting" of drunkards has been introduced.

FREE HOMES AND TENANT FARMERS

Some Significant Facts gleaned from the Census Report. Chicago Tribune. It has always been the custom of Americans to extol the farmer and to assert that a nation largely composed of freeholding farmers is a nation founded on a rock upon which the rains may descend and the winds blow in vain.

The veracious Omaha correspondent of the Lincoln Journal, who claims to speak for the anti-machine republican faction of Douglas county, ventures upon the prediction that Judge Sullivan will carry Douglas county by a large majority if Rosewater persists in his old tactics.

Councilman O'Brien and County Commissioner Connelly will paddle in the regatta for the world's championship at the annual picnic of the Douglas County Democracy next Sunday.

"See here! Ain't it time for you to be 'gittin' home?" "Home? Home? Shertly not! I still got a dollar and twenty shents!" - New York Journal.

"You're learning to play chess," said Maud. "I answered Mamie. 'The moves must be very difficult.' 'Yes, but the worst part isn't the moving. It's the keeping still.' - Washington Star.

Markley - Yes, I did lend him $10. Newell - Well, I suppose he'll pay you back some day, but you can't make him hurry. Markley - I don't know about that. The mere sight of my pocket watch, the street has had that effect upon him several times lately. - Philadelphia Press.

"The Judge - You are charged with taking two hundred dollars." "The Prisoner - Yes, your honor, my doctor told me I must take something starchy." - Tombs Statesman.

"I see," said the stranger, stirring something in a glass. "The strength of the names in the new city directory you claim a population here of over 200,000." "I guess that's about right," observed the man in the battered Panama hat, who was leaning against the bar and smoking a cigar.

"What multiple do you use?" "He replied, 'I'm throwing away his cigar and wiping his mouth with the back of his hand, generally take it straight out of the same.' - Chicago Tribune.

PRAYER OF THE PREDACEOUS. Life. Now this is the prayer of the Bull and Bear at the shrine of the God of Gold.

"Oh, Lord of the Merger, and Trust, and Of Glimmon, and Greed, and Sham! 'Man cannot live by bread alone.' So give us our daily lamb."

"We need his fleece to keep us warm. His fat when the night winds blow. And after all, he's an only child. And twin brother to a fool."

"We won't do a thing to the fresh young sheep. But teach him to gambol and play! We'll feed him on only the best of 'shorts' And beautiful 'long' and 'medium' hay."

"He shall not suffer the pangs of thirst. This woolly stray from the flock. For innocence we love and prize. And always water our stock."

"The lion has down with the lamb (inside). So why not the Bull and Bear? We will show him 'cover,' we'll take him in. We've plenty of room to spare."

"His mnt assue let him bring with him. The long grass that rice with some. And he shall join our Browning Club. And learn what is in a name."

"Then, let us return to our mutton." Will current farm (c) be Jam? He shall have a plunge in our dearest pool. And come out a steel spring lamb."

"Oh, Slightly Humble, Auriferous God, 'Keep the lion's head (c) be Jam? The Knight of the Golden Fleece are we. And we worship thee night and day."
