BUY SEPTEMBER CORN—Our free corn bookiet is the most complete and comprehensive bookiet of the kind ever issued. It explains our methods, tells all about the wonderful opportunities offered by the present situation of the corn market, and in fact, tells you everything you will want to know before investing. The present condition of the corn market offers a magnificent opportunity for investment. Because of the recent money scare in Wall street, which had a depressing effect on all grain markets. September corn sold for less than it is actually worth. Those who take advantage of the remarkable opportunity thus presented will, we predict, realize handsome profits in a short time. Reliable information received from different parts of the corn belt show that the growing crop is not progressing as satisfactority as expected and that a short crop is certain. Such conditions undoubtedly mean higher prices. You can ill afford to miss this golden opportunity. If you are seeking an investment not requiring large capital that offers magnificent opportunities for large profits, and that does not require constant attention on your part to attend to it, send for our booklet. We are corn specialists, devoting our entire attention to the handling of corn investments. For that reason we are better fitted to handle corn investments than any other commission house in the country. No matter where you live, nor how inexperienced you may be, you can deal as easily through us as though you were an experienced operator and here in person to attend to your investments. On our plan every 2-cent advance in the price of corn doubles your money. You will never have a better opportunity to quickly realize handsome profits on a corn investment. Bon't miss it.
