Discovery in Connection with Lane of Railroad Avenue.

BUILDINGS SHOVE ROAD TO WESTWARD

Original Plan of County Road Shows It to Have Been Located Many Feet from Where It Now Stands.

The proposed paving of Railroad avenue from Q street to the county line has brought out some information which even old-timers had forgotten. It is a story of old maps in the city engineer's office which showed that the road was originally laid out in 1866 and that it was located between seventy-five and 100 feet from the right of way of the Union Pacific. Since the original road was laid out buildings have been erected and the roadway shove westward so that it now runs parallel with the Union Pacific right of way. The original road is all right as far as the Half-Way house. From that point south it has been changed. Maps show that the road, if run on original lines, would now run through Murray's book store and through Kravus' grocery store. In making this discovery the city engineer is wondering what to do about establishing the grade from Madison street to the county line. This new grade is a stretch of only 1.80 feet, and unless there is a protest the present road will be considered as the road to be paved. As the road now in use has been traveled for twenty years, without any remonstrance, it is presumed that the city will proceed with its plan to establish the grade and make arrangements for the paving. Engineers hold the view that vitrified brick or stone will have to be used, as there is so much wash that a lighter pavement, such as macadam or Sherman gravel, would soon be washed out.

No estimate of the cost of paving has been made yet, but this will be done some day this week and the result announced to the council. Under the provisions of the new charter the city council has the right to pave this road without the usual petition of property owners, providing that no remonstrance exceeding five per cent of the property involved is made. As it is not to be a general district paving, it is thought that there will be any opposition to the plan of paving the street. Should the road be paved an effort will be made to have the Barry county commissioners make some improvement in the road between the county line to Bellevue and Fort Crook.

Board Tries Officers.

Three police officers had hearings before the Fire and Police commissioners last night. Charges had been preferred in regular form by Chief Briggs against Officers Billy McCraith and Edward Pierce, and Pierce retaliated with charges against Captain Troutan.

McCraith was charged with being negligent in letting Bert Clarke escape. This officer had been sent to Thirtieth and Missouri avenue to arrest Clark for stealing a calf. Clark wanted to finish his supper, and McCraith permitted him to do so. Then he wanted to go into a bed room and get his coat. Clark jumped out of the window and got away. It appears from the statements made by Chairman Vasant that the entire affair was a mistake as Clark had written order for the calf, but failed to show it to the officer. The entire matter has been settled.

Officer Ed Pierce was charged by Captain Troutan with being asleep at fire hall No. 5 on the night of August 1. Troutan testified that he failed to see the officer on his beat and went to the rear portion of the fire hall and found Pierce curled up on a bench sound asleep. From the fire hall Troutan went to the residence of Chief Briggs and called him out to go with him to the fire hall to take a look at the sleeping policeman. When the chief and the captain reached the fire hall the officer was walking his beat. Captain Troutan said that he did not wake Pierce up because he wanted a witness, as the best of feeling does not prevail among the members of the force.

In his own behalf Pierce testified that he left his beat on Twenty-fourth street about 2:30 o'clock and went to headquarters for the purpose of being excused from duty. The captain was out and so he went to the fire hall to take a rest. He admitted that he might have fallen asleep.

Captain Troutan was called next to explain why he was reported asleep at Miller's restaurant on the night of July 1. Harry Miller, the night manager of the place, would not positively swear that Captain Troutan went to sleep after he had his supper, but upon being pushed hard by Berquist remarked: "If he wasn't asleep he was awfully quiet for awhile." The testimony went to show that Troutan was at the restaurant from midnight until 1 a. m. Officer Frank Morton, who was on the N street beat, testified that he went into the restaurant about 1:30 a. m. and asked if the captain had been there. The night clerk pointed to the couch in the dining room, but did not make any remarks. Morton saw a form on the table, but could not swear that it was Troutan's.

HAY FEVER FOR 27 YEARS

Well Known New England Woman Cured by Hyomei—Cure Was Lasting.

The thousands of discouraged people who dread summer's approach because they think hay fever cannot be avoided, will read with interest and gratitude the following statement from Helen F. Williams of Massachusetts.

"For 27 years, from the month of August until heavy frost, I have been afflicted with hay fever, growing worse each year, and of late years I was unable to attend to my work during that period. Last summer I fortunately gave Hyomei a trial and am happy to say that it entirely cured me and I have had no return of the affliction since."

This letter is one of many that have come to the proprietors of Hyomei, and the results following this treatment, have known that a change of climate was the only way in which relief could be obtained, the evolution of Hyomei naturally resulted. By breathing its germ killing and healing balsams, any one can have, at any moment of the day, either in their homes or in the open air, a climate like that of the White Mountains or other health resorts, where hay fever is unknown.

MILITARY SHOW GETS CROWD

Exhibition at Vinton Park Draws Good Attendance and Delights Spectators.

Again the gallant Company L boys thrust back the flag and again the pomp and circumstance of the annual convention of the Omaha Veterans Association was saved to the city out at Vinton park last night. This time about 2,500 people paid admission, and were rewarded by one of the neatest military shows ever given in Nebraska. All the little rough pieces were smoothed out, and the affair went as nicely as could be asked. The exhibition drills are of the sort the Omaha Guards and Thurston Rifles are famous for, and the band concert by the Twenty-second Infantry band was most delightfully rendered. This evening the band will play the following program:

- March—American Medley.....Brooks
  - Selection—King Do.....Luders
  - March—The Girl.....Luders
  - Patrol—American.....Langley
  - Patrol—American.....Meehan
- The band will also play during all intermissions.

SELECTING OFFICIAL PAPER

Commissioner Hear Argument in Bee-World-Herald Case and Defer Action.

RUMOR DECISION IS ALREADY FORMED

Woodruff and Gurley for World-Herald and Council for the Bee Present the Respective Issues.

The council yesterday failed to decide the question whether the Bee or the World-Herald is entitled to do the city advertising. After listening to the arguments of the respective lawyers the councilmen went into executive session for an hour, adjourning at noon with the information that they would meet formally Thursday morning and pass judgment. It is understood, though not admitted, that the decision has been reached which will be kept secret until formally ratified.

Attorneys Woodruff and Gurley argued the case for the World-Herald and Attorney Cornell for the Bee. The debate lasted more than an hour, during most of which time the entire council was present. Attorney Woodruff opened the argument by outlining the situation from the World-Herald standpoint. He said the two questions raised by the Bee were whether or not the World-Herald was the lowest bidder and had the necessary 5,000 bona fide circulation in the city.

It had been mathematically demonstrated, he asserted, that the price of 2 cents per square inch for the first insertion and 15 cents for subsequent insertions was lower than that submitted by the Bee of 20 and 15 cents respectively, notwithstanding the fact that the World-Herald columns are narrower than those of its competitor. He described in detail the plan to settle the controversy as to the World-Herald's alleged 5,000 bona fide subscribers.

Library Board Reorganizes.

The South Omaha Library board met yesterday afternoon and reorganized for the fiscal year. This meeting should have been held in July, but owing to the absence of some of the members it was deferred. Officers and committees remain the same as last year. Bruce McCulloch is president and Mrs. C. L. Talbot is secretary. E. L. Howe, city treasurer, is custodian of the funds. Reports were read showing the progress being made in the library building and another architect's estimate will soon be forwarded to Mr. Carnegie's financial agents in New York. The terms of three members have expired, but as Mayor Kautsky has not made any appointments, the members whose terms are still held over until the mayor sends a list of names to the council to be confirmed.

Careless About Reports.

Deputy Clerk Burgess notices that physicians are careless about the manner of filling out blanks notifying the city of births and deaths. Not long ago letters were sent to all doctors regarding this matter, but there is no improvement in the reports. This is especially true of midwives. Supplemental notices will be sent out now in order that the city may keep a complete record of the births and deaths.

Special Council Meeting.

There was a special meeting of the city council yesterday to consider some tax matters. These were disposed of quickly and then the council, with the mayor concurring, directed the city clerk to advertise for bids for the construction of a twelve-inch sewer in the alley between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh streets from a point sixty feet north of B street south to H street. The next meeting of the council will be held Monday night.

GEORGE WEIGEL BADLY WOUNDED

Neighborly Quarrel Ends in Shooting in Which One Man is Hit Twice.

A feud of long standing between the Normann family, living at 161 South Thirty-third street, and the Wiegels, living next door, resulted in the serious shooting of George Wiegel about 7 o'clock last evening. William Normann, 21 years old, who is badly crippled with rheumatism and he is contemplating a trip to Excelsior Springs, Mo., was the aggressor. He was a neighbor of the Wiegels, living at 161 South Thirty-third street, and he shot and wounded Wiegel, son of the man who was shot, and Willie Vols were playing with a tennis ball in the lot adjoining the Normann residence. The ball was knocked into the Normann yard. The Wiegel boy went out and the ball was kicked by the elder Normann, who chased him into the yard, and, it is said, struck him several times with a broom stick. The father of the boy who was attacked was in his back yard at the time and came to the rescue of his son. After some sparring Wiegel knocked Normann down and kicked him. At this juncture William Normann stepped out onto the roof of the back porch with a revolver in his hand. He fired four shots, two of which took effect. One in the left leg and one in the hip of Wiegel. Mrs. A. son. After some sparring Wiegel knocked Normann down and kicked him.
