Mulick-Gard Assault Case Threatens to Involve Others Whose Names Have Not Yet Been Mon-

tioned.

Michael Cavanaugh, detective, for whom swarrants were issued yesterday morning for alleged offers of bribes in two instances in the Benson assault case, appeared at the police station yesterday, accepted service of the warrants and was released on Cavanaugh denied the statement made by Justice King before whom the assault case was tried, to the county attorney that Cavanaugh had offered him that he would give all the aid possible to $100 to release Frank Mulick.

"I never offered King a cent," said Cavanaugh, "and I never intimated to since. A committee composed of M. Lee, him that I would give him anything for J. Lynch and C. Baustrap was appointed releasing Frank Mulick. His statement to to wait upon the Board of Public Works the county attorney that I did, if he made to have some dangerous holes on Fifteenth such a statement, is absolutely false. Here is the truth of the whole affair.

"After the story of my alleged attempt all resolutions and ordinances affecting the to bribe Alice Gard had been published, I south side. was afraid that this would have some weight in determining the decision of duct was brought up and condemned quite Justice King or that it might possibly in- warmly by the club and a resolution passed jure Mulick. I was discussing it with a with regard to it. friend of mine. He suggested that I see King and explain it to him. This man then went over to King's office and brought him to meet me in Foley & Ryan's saloon. We drank some whisky together, and I explained the case to King just exactly as it was published in The Bee and then I asked him to read The Bee and he would get the King is from South.

"While we were talking King incidentally remarked that he was from the south and had shot north during the war and intimated that he was prejudiced against all northerners. So I said, 'well if there is any doubt in your mind as to the guilt of Frank Mulick I hope you will give the boy the benefit of it and if you do. when it is all over come to my office and will shake your hand even if you did shoot north.'

"King and I then smoked a cigar apiece and he left, first shaking hands with me and promising to call on me after the case was settled. I never mentioned money to
