TRIAL OF HUMBERTS BEGINS

Notorious French Family Face Judge and Jury in Court

THOUSANDS CLAMOR FOR ADMITTANCE

Railroads Run Excursion Trains Into Paris Loaded with People Anxious to See Famous Defendants Who Promise Sensation.

PARIS, Aug. 8.—The notorious Humbert family today faced a judge and jury to meet the charge of having perpetrated what ex-Premier Waldeck-Rousseau described as the greatest swindle of the century.

Crowds clamor for admittance.

The Palais de Justice was early this morning surrounded by large crowds anxious to gain admittance to the court room. A heavy force of municipal guards preserved order.

Woman's Nightmare

No woman's happiness can be complete without children; it is her nature to love and want them as much as it is to love the beautiful and pure.

Mother's Friend

The Bradford Register Co., Atlanta, Ga.

bearing a cut steel ornament and a cluster of white roses.

Frederic Humbert was the picture of a miserable man. He bore a haggard expression, showing more despair than defiance.

No surprises develop.

The interrogation of Mme. Humbert furnished the chief incident of the day, but failed to develop any surprises or bring out the whereabouts of the mysterious Crawford brothers.

Questioned about the various inheritances which she claimed to have received, the witness answered with apparent frankness, saying she had received large presents.

Later her calmness in putting off her disclosures excited outbursts of laughter in which judges and spectators joined.
