

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE. E. ROEWATER, EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION...

THE IRISH LAND BILL. All who are interested in the welfare of Ireland and who hope to see a betterment of conditions for the people of that country will welcome the fact that the land-purchase bill has got through Parliament...

he has nothing to say. Interpreted in plain English, that means that General Miles is in a receptive mood with a presidential bee buzzing in his head.

SHORTEN NATIONAL CAMPAIGNS. A suggestion well worth consideration by National Committees. Judge Munger has had ample evidence submitted to him in the Chicago Great Western bridge case to give him a fair idea of the immense value attached to the railway terminals in Omaha...

BITS OF WASHINGTON LIFE. A warm nest of thrifty Robbins occupy the postoffice at Rocky Mountain, North Carolina. Recently the postoffice was advanced to the presidential class...

LEUTENANT GENERAL YOUNG. Notable Military Record of General Miles' Successor. New York Sun. The new commanding general of the United States Army, Samuel B. M. Young...

Table with 2 columns: Year, Amount. Rows include 1902, 1901, 1900, 1899, 1898, 1897, 1896, 1895, 1894, 1893, 1892, 1891, 1890, 1889, 1888, 1887, 1886, 1885, 1884, 1883, 1882, 1881, 1880.

THE CITY LIGHTING CONTRACTS. The city of Omaha expends about $30,000 a year for street lighting. Between $30,000 and $40,000 of this amount is paid for gas lights and about $40,000 for the electric arc lights...

Room for a Hoast. Baltimore American. This has been a cool summer, but it is not over yet, and has possibilities in reserve which may rudely check premature optimism...

Old Ideals Rehashed. Indianapolis Journal. If William J. Bryan imagines he is establishing a new cult by lecturing in this state on "Democratic Ideals," he is mistaken. The democratic ideal is to get something lucrative.

Don't Forget Schofield. Brooklyn Eagle. The talk brook on about General Miles should not proceed to the extent of ignoring the existence of John M. Schofield, the only surviving northern general who commanded an entire army...

Small Persons in Big Places Skillfully Flayed. Washington Post. One hears in Washington, especially from small persons in big places, a great deal of scornful talk about "those newspaper men..."

THE FEAR OF THE TRUSTS. It has been apparent for some time that the combinations were fearful of the operation of the new governmental bureau which is authorized to investigate their organization and method of doing business...

LABOR'S SHARE OF PROSPERITY. The Chicago and Robbins are making a fight against being numbered. They seem to regard it as humiliating. They would be reconciled to the numbers if they knew some of the names that are buried at them.

Substantial Gains in the Railroad Service During the Year. Washington Post. Railway employees, who are as completely organized as workmen in any other line of industry in the nation, learned some years ago that nothing is gained by strikes...

ART OF TUMBLING DOWN. Southern Papers Tender Gratuitous Advice to Bryan. New York Sun. Mr. Bryan's temperate and polished criticism of Mr. Cleveland is not appreciated even by stanch and long-forebearing Bryanites...

SCHOOLS. Social atmosphere home-like and happy. General and college preparatory courses. Exceptional advantages in music, art and literary interpretation...

SCHOOLS. Social atmosphere home-like and happy. General and college preparatory courses. Exceptional advantages in music, art and literary interpretation...

THE REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE will welcome the Chicago Great Western with open arms at the Union station.

THE PRESIDENT may convene congress in October, but if so it will not be in response to any irresistible public demand.

IOWA is ahead of all of the other states in the progress made with its state building at the St. Louis exposition. They can't get ahead of Iowa.

THE QUESTION growing out of the adoption of the new primary rules that is puzzling republican aspirants for nominations most is, where to raise the entrance fee.

IT IS SAID that the big brewers expect to take in $50,000 at the gate for their pugilistic mill. If the box office men are not disappointed the spectators surely will be.

PRESIDENT PARRY of the National Association of Manufacturers ought to step aside now for a little while and give President Baer of the Anthracite Coal trust another whirl.

IF THE STATE BOARD of Education is to visit every town and village in western Nebraska that believes itself available for the new normal school it may be out on its inspection tour until Christmas.

THE TRANSMISSISSIPPI congress, which meets at Seattle next Tuesday, is assured in advance of a superabundance of transmississippi oratory with several large chunks of transcontinental advertising thrown in.

KING EDWARD will travel incognito for a fortnight as the duke of Lancaster, taking in the various watering places of Europe. He will be careful, however, to let everyone know that he is traveling incognito so that none of the honors due to royalty may be overlooked.

THE MOST CONVINCING proof of general prosperity may be found in the fact that the sheriffs are not very numerous in evidence at the interstate sheriff's convention. Apparently business is so good that the sheriffs can think of no new scheme to better their condition.

THE URGENT necessity of a trolley line connecting Omaha and Fort Crook is conceded. As soon as the street railway people can be persuaded that a Fort Crook extension would develop quickly into a remunerative part of their tri-city street railway system, the new line will be built.

AND NOW Mr. Magoon, who has been serving as law officer for the insular division of the War department will, instead of returning to Nebraska, step his position at Washington as a stepping stone to a professional location in the east. This seems to be quite the habit with Nebraskans honored with official preferment at the national capital.

HOW KANSAS can ask Andrew Carnegie to come to the rescue of its flood victims after the Kansas legislature refused to make any relief appropriation at all passes comprehension. Mr. Carnegie's whole scheme of philanthropy has been on the principal of helping people to help themselves and if he sticks to this rule the application from Kansas will be barred.