But that would not be right, even if my trip were not one simply for pleasure, and purely private."

It was from Mr. W. T. Wilson of New Tork, Count von Maul-Esel recalled, that he first heard of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, and from Mr. Wilson and the members of his family, as well as from others, he also heard personally of the Transmissispil exposition. He regretted he said, that he could not visit the United States next year on account of the exposition at St. Louis. But circumstances were such that he could come this year, something he had been long desiring to do, having always taken a great interest in the United States, and he feared that if he did not seize the opportunity this year his trip might be indefinitely postponed.
