STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss.: George B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Daily Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee printed during the month of July, 1903, was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Number of copies and Total. Total: 935,315. Less unsold and returned copies: 9,648. Net total sales: 925,667.

Parties leaving for summer. Parties leaving the city for the summer may have The Bee sent to them regularly by notifying The Bee Business office, in person or by mail.

Does advertising pay? Just ask Sir Thomas Lipton if you don't believe it does. Andrew Carnegie will have to give it away faster if he is to avoid a disgraceful death.

What David B. Hill says about President Roosevelt is matched only by what he thinks about William J. Bryan. The year 1903 promises to go down into history as a fateful year for the grand old men of the nineteenth century.

REMEDIES FOR LAWLESSNESS. Recent utterances of distinguished jurists in regard to remedies for mob violence, with particular reference to lynching, merit the very earnest and serious consideration of the American public.

THE CENSUS AND THE RAILWAYS. Inquiries have been sent out by the census bureau in order to get data for a series of bulletins on wealth, debt and taxation. Incidentally these will deal with the value of railway property and the New York Journal of Commerce observes that this alone is sufficient to give the question of railway assessment new prominence.

Love of the Delaware supreme court takes a somewhat similar view, saying that the remedy for mob violence "is not in hasty and feverish action of courts of justice against the criminal whose offense is the exciting cause."
