(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—(Special.)—Republican representatives in congress who do not hesitate to say that the next session is imminent were not in agreement as to what one of the members terms "the great assumption of authority of the senate."

It is stated that Speaker Cannon during his visit to the east, and particularly during his vacation on the coast, was determined that he was at the last session to assert the dignity of what has been commonly accepted as the popular body of congress.

CONSECRATE BISHOP OF CEBU

Rev. Thomas Hendrick of Rochester, N. Y., to Be Sent to the Philippines.

ROME, Aug. 23.—The consecration of Rev. Thomas Hendrick of Rochester, N. Y., as bishop of Cebu, P. I., was performed this morning by Cardinal Satolli, in the church of the Franciscan mission nuns. The occasion acquired special importance because one of Cardinal Satolli's assistants at the function was Archbishop Harty, the metropolitan of the Philippine islands, while contemporary Cardinal Satolli consecrated Mgr. Cavallari as titular bishop of Philadelphia, Asia Minor, whom the pope has appointed provicar of Venice. Plus X still keeps for himself the patriarchate, thus avoiding a revival of the question whether the Italian government has the right to choose the patriarch of Venice, which it claimed when Sarto was appointed to that post.

The scene today was picturesque in the extreme when the red robed cardinal, surrounded by the bishops and a number of priests, entered the church, the patriarch of Venice, which it claimed when Sarto was appointed to that post.

MADAME HUMBERT IN TEARS

Woman Breaks Down After Being Returned to Prison.

PARIS, Aug. 23.—The result of the Humbert trial has caused a general feeling of relief, many, especially among the lower classes, having feared till the last that occult influences would succeed in procuring a verdict of acquittal. The intense interest taken in the trial is shown by the fact that the presses of the newspapers could not keep up with the demand for news, and some reached the outlying quarters of Paris only quite late in the evening, when they were eagerly sought at three and four times their regular price.

In spite of her defiant attitude when receiving sentence, Madame Therese Humbert broke down last night on her arrival in the congestive prison and had a long weeping session. The men of the party, though depressed, bore up better.

Maitre Labori, her counsel, visited Madame Humbert this morning and found her still prostrated, but she obstinately maintained her innocence and denounced the sentence as an injustice. She and her husband undoubtedly will appeal to the court of cassation on the ground of technical irregularities. If successful in their appeal they will be retried.

Emile and Romain d'Aurignac will not appeal, as owing to the time they have spent in prison awaiting trial, the period of release on a ticket of leave will arrive before a hearing could possibly take place.

The defending counsel are greatly disappointed at the result of the trial. Maitre Labori refused to be interviewed, but his colleague, Maitre Clunet expressed his opinion that but for the ill-timed and futile revelation of the names of the jury, a general acquittal would have been possible. Several members of the jury who have given interviews are unanimous in saying that the person who did the most to secure the conviction of the prisoners was Madame Therese herself, because her husband's name was mentioned in the indictment. The foreman of the jury declares there was no difference of opinion concerning the guilt of Madame Therese and her husband, but the jury's decision in the case of the two brothers d'Aurignac was the result of much discussion. The indignation was based solely on their complicity in the swindling operations in connection with the Rentevigie insurance corporation.

The aged mother of Frederic Humbert and widow of Senator Humbert, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the Crawford swindle, and with whom Madame Humbert's daughter Eve and her sister, Marie d'Aurignac, are staying, received the news from a reporter. She bore up bravely and indignantly denounced the injustice of the verdict, declaring that an appeal would be made to the court of cassation. She and Eve Humbert were permitted to see the prisoners this afternoon. Madame Luciene Humbert, a sister of the convicted woman, likewise maintains belief in her innocence.

The daughter of Renzier (whom Mme. Humbert yesterday in court testified to be the man who left the fortune and who took the name of Crawford because of his hostility as an intermediary between the Germans and Marshal Bazaine in the surrender of Metz), who is the widow of an English diamond merchant named Phillips, lives at Bolosse-le-Bertrand, near Metz, not far from the Chateau des Deux Vives, which belonged to the Humbert family. She declares she never had any intercourse with the Humbert family and never heard her father mention their names. She added that she had two sisters settled in England and also a half-brother, whose whereabouts she does not know.

RAIN FILLS PARIS STREETS

French Capital Given Taste of High Water in Remarkable Degree.

PARIS, Aug. 23.—Torrential rains, accompanied by thunder and lightning, began early this afternoon and continued with little intermission until late tonight. The streets of the city, especially at numerous points where there are excavations for the metropolitan underground railway, were fatally flooded. At least a score of houses in the lower quarters of the city were flooded. On the Quai des Jemmapes a water main burst, causing a subsidence sixteen feet deep. The trains on the Ceinture railroad were stopped, owing to the station of La Chapelle being flooded. Much damage was done also in the northeastern suburbs.

POACHING TO BE STOPPED

Canada Will, However, Avoid Cause for Complications with United States.

OTTAWA, Aug. 23.—The Department of Marine and Fisheries is determined to put an end to the illegal fishing in the great lakes. It is not the intention, however, to enforce the law with severe penalties, as has been intimated in some quarters since the Petrel-Silver Spray incident occurred. It is the opinion of official circles that the desired end can be attained without resorting to harsh measures, which might lead to international complications. Some of the boats will be manned and placed at points in the great lakes where poaching has been carried on on a large scale. They will be armed with rifles and searchlights, as all the patrol boats are now equipped.

KONAKI KILLS TWO WOMEN

HONOLULU, Aug. 23.—E. M. Jones shot and killed his divorced wife and probably fatally wounded her mother, Mrs. Farmington, early this morning. Jealousy is assigned as the cause of the shooting. Jones' wife recently obtained a divorce on the ground of cruelty. Jones is a half-breed, while his wife was a member of a prominent white family. After the shooting Jones disappeared with threats to commit suicide. There is talk of lynching in the event he is found alive.

OHIO FIGHT WARMS UP

Democratic gubernatorial Aspirants Want Both Offices and Making of Platform.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 23.—The close contest between Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland and John L. Zimmerman of Springfield for the gubernatorial nomination has caused more interest in the democratic state convention this week than for many years. While both claim a majority of the 600 delegates, the result depends on the settlement of contents involving 140 delegates. These contents are expected to prevent two congressional districts at Cincinnati and at Cleveland from participating in the selection of members of the committee so that the committee on credentials may have only eighteen members voting on the first contest that is passed on. With the custom of taking the contents up in alphabetical order, that of Cuyahoga county would come first and it would likely be decided in favor of Johnson so that there would be nineteen voting on the contents from Gallia, Hamilton and other counties.

The preliminary contents extend to all parts of the organization of the convention. Johnson says he could not make the race on a Zimmerman platform and Zimmerman says he could not run on a Johnson platform, so both are seeking a majority of the committee on resolutions.

John W. Bookwater, recognized as the Johnson candidate for United States senator, tonight gave out the following: Much pleased and gratified as I am at the mention of my name in connection with the nomination of senator this week, and much as I appreciate the honor and the confidence of my friends, I cannot say, I feel it but a matter of justice to my fellow-democrats of the state and to myself to say that I am not a candidate for any nomination and my name will not be presented to the convention for its consideration.

Mayor Johnson and his manager, Charles P. Salen of Cleveland, Judge W. T. Durbin and W. F. Finley of Kenton, Congressman H. C. Garber of Greenville and others were in conference here today with Bookwater, but they would not consider his withdrawal. Bookwater was accompanied by Charles W. Constantine of Springfield, and they return home tomorrow.

The Johnson men say they still favor senatorial endorsement and that it will be "free-for-all" race. Among those mentioned for senatorial endorsement are: Neville E. Ingalls, Charles W. Baker and Judson Harmon of Cincinnati, John H. Clarke and L. A. Russell of Cleveland, Allen W. Thurman, James Kilbourne and Congressman Lewis of Columbus, ex-Congressman J. M. Mahan of Dayton, ex-Congressman J. A. Norton of Tiffin, ex-Congressman A. J. Warner of Marietta, Hon. Charles N. Haskell of Ottawa and Walter Ritchie of Lima.

WAGE WAR ON SOCIALISM

German Priests of This Province Said to Have Agreed on Program.

DUBUQUE, Ia., Aug. 23.—(Special.)—The German priests of the archdiocese of Dubuque have banded together for the purpose of waging war on socialism. The keynote of the priests' campaign was sounded from the pulpit of St. Mary's church this morning when Rev. Father Rohlfman, assistant pastor, urged German Catholics to abandon the teachings of socialism and do all in their power to check its growth. Three hundred members of his congregation are socialists and the Catholic authorities have become alarmed at the large number of German Catholics who have become affiliated with the socialist party the past year.

It is understood that this movement among the German priests has the support of Archbishop Keane, who, previous to his departure for Germany two months ago, urged the priests to do their utmost to check the spread of socialism among their parishioners and endeavor to reclaim German Catholics who have accepted its teachings. Circulars were sent to all of the German priests in the archdiocese inviting them to come to Dubuque and attend a series of lectures on socialism, and also to discuss plans for organization to fight against the spread of socialism.

One hundred and fifty priests from various parts of the archdiocese responded to the call and all pledged themselves to do their utmost to uphold the supremacy of the church and put down socialism in their parishes. Next Sunday socialism will be condemned from the pulpit of most of the German Catholic churches in the archdiocese and the crusade will be continued with vigor until the priests are satisfied that they have reclaimed all of their parishioners who have become affiliated with the socialist party. Archbishop Keane is expected here from Europe in a few weeks and he will take an active part in the crusade.

FUNERAL OF S. F. BENNETT

Large Number of Friends Pay Final Tribute at Home of Deceased Pioneer.

The last offices of respect for Samuel Fredette Bennett were paid by many mourners yesterday afternoon before his bier under the oaks at the residence of the late pioneer merchant, 814 South Twenty-seventh street. The services at the home, which, in accordance with the wishes of the family, were public (and at the cemetery private) were unique as well as solemn, simple and impressive. A black canopy was spread under the shade of the trees where hundreds of friends of the late pioneer and his family gathered to pay their last tributes. The services, which were brief, were conducted by Rev. John Williams, rector of St. Barnabas, who read the ritual and offered prayer, making no remarks. Mr. Will Manchester sang some appropriate hymns and Don Wheeler, with Mrs. Wheeler as piano accompanist, in the house, also sang with great feeling and emotion.

The casket was laden and surrounded with beautiful wreaths of flowers, many of which had come from the Ak-Sar-Ben Woodmen and the employees at the Bennett store. Floral decorations were prepared also at the grave, where the service was private and attended by near relatives and friends only.

The pallbearers, all of whom were emmened from the funeral home of S. C. Reynolds, E. A. Weathers, George Cornelius, G. A. Baker, M. A. Shean, George Schneider, all were in the employ of the company during the active years of the late Mr. Bennett's life. A long line of carriages with friends followed the remains to their final resting place in Prospect Hill cemetery.

OBSERVE EMMET CENTENNIAL

Colonel Blake of the Irish Brigade Comes to Omaha Next Month.

A number of the friends of Ireland and the Irish cause met last evening at the Paxton for the purpose of making arrangements to celebrate the centennial of the martyrdom of Robert Emmet, the passage of the Irish land bill, the triumph of the United Irish league and other interesting subjects. E. C. Ryan presided in the absence of T. J. Mahoney, president of the Emmet branch of the United Irish league. Mr. Mahoney, before leaving for Larchmont, N. Y., gave instructions to the secretary of the league to make arrangements for the Emmet celebration, and promised he would see some of the prominent Irish-Americans in the east and invite one or two to address the assembly of Irish patriots on the centennial of the martyrdom of Emmet.

The secretary, Jeremiah Howard, read a telegram from Colonel Blake of the "Irish Brigade," stating that he could not be present on September 23, but would arrive in Omaha on September 27, and he would be in Omaha then.

All friends of Ireland are requested by the league to be present tonight at 7:30 at the Paxton cafe to help make arrangements for the Emmet celebration and the reception of Colonel Blake.

NEWSPAPER TRAIN WRECKED

Jump Track at Curve While Running at High Rate of Speed.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Aug. 23.—A special train on the New York Central carrying New York city newspapers was wrecked at Gulf bridge in this place today. Engineers Robert Miller and Fireman Peter Conley, both of Albany, were killed and employes of the World, Sun, Rochester News company and American and Journal were severely injured.

Conductor Ehrhardt and several others of the train's crew were slightly injured. The wreck, which was caused by a broken engine and three express cars. In rounding the sharp Gulf bridge curve the engine jumped the track and landed at the foot of the embankment into a roadway. The front car, in which were all of those injured, followed the engine down the slope, and before it could be stopped.

MAY TIE UP THE SHIPYARDS

Machinists' Union Unable to Come to Any Agreement with Employers.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—At the close of a stormy session of the Central Federated union today it was voted to stand by the Marine Machinists' union in its demand for an increase of wages. This was taken to mean that a sympathetic strike, tying up all the shipyards in New York and vicinity, may be ordered this week. The conference committee reported that in its efforts last Friday to come to some agreement with the employers they had made no progress; that the employers absolutely refused to consider the $2 per day or grant any increase.

RUSSIAN FLEET PROMPTLY WITHDRAWS

Sultan and Officials Take Up Disturbed Condition of Interior.

EXTRAORDINARY COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

News Received at Constantinople Indicates a Condition of Peace Prevails in Vicinity of Adrianople.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 23.—The Russian Black sea squadron, which was ordered to Turkish waters, and which arrived at Inzula, eastern European Turkey, August 19, to support Russia's demands on the sultan growing out of the assassination of M. Rostkowski, Russian consul at Monastir, has been recalled to Sebastopol, the squadron's point of departure. The recall followed a notification of the ports that the sultan had ordered all the Russian demands to be complied with.

The dispatch received from M. Zinovief, Russian ambassador at Constantinople, announcing that the sultan had yielded completely to Russia's demands, was as follows: The ports have taken the following measures to fulfill the demands of the Russian government. In addition to the condemnation and execution of M. Rostkowski's murderers and the punishment of their accomplices, those who were the strictest of allusions to M. Rostkowski are dismissed from the service. Careful search is being made of the persons who were in the consul's carriage. All the officials, twenty-four in number, whose names were handed over as objects of suspicion, are favorable comment by the Russian ambassador, are relieved of their posts and handed over to justice. The persons mentioned in the same list as guilty of various offenses were dismissed from office. Ismail Hak Pasha, the chief of police at Palanka, in the province of Uskub, is reported to have been dismissed. The persons arrested for accusing Mussulmans of outrage and abuse are liberated.

The ports have ordered the appointment to the gendarmerie of favorable reply to those whose names will be announced later, and finally, all the military, civil and judicial lawless acts have been stopped. The order to secure order and tranquility.

The news has reached St. Petersburg from Brussels that the ports have requested Belgium to command twelve officers for the Turkish gendarmerie.

TURKEY ACTS PROMPTLY

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 23.—The reply of the ports accepting the Russian demands was delivered twelve hours after the presentation of the Russian note, a promptitude most unusual in the history of Turkish diplomacy. Tewfik Pasha, the foreign minister, after receiving the Russian note, called on M. Zinovief, the Russian ambassador, and requested the withdrawal of the Russian squadron from Turkish waters, on the ground that its presence tended to encourage the insurrection.

At the receipt of a favorable reply to St. Petersburg, M. Zinovief telegraphed the order of withdrawal to Admiral Kriger, commanding the Russian squadron at Inzula.

A rumor has been current that the sultan appealed to the German emperor to use his good offices in favor of the Russian demand of the recall of the Russian squadron.

An extraordinary council of ministers assembled at Yildiz Kiosk yesterday to consider the situation in the interior and discuss the military measures rendered necessary by it. The sultan had on Friday sought the advice of the French ambassador.

News from Adrianople represents the situation in that vilayet as verging on a panic. The insurgents have destroyed telegraphic communication at several points between Adrianople and Kırkkilise, thirty-five miles to the eastward, and have pillaged several Greek and Mussulman villages, including Kavakli and Kisilii, southwest of Kırkkilise. Troops have been despatched to the environs of Adrianople.

Two sailing vessels crowded with Mussulman refugees from villages on the Black sea coast have arrived at Kavakli, at the entrance to the Bosphorus. At Monastir a Mussulman called the Italian consul a "gouster." A strong feeling prevails among the Mussulmans at Salonica and Monastir on account of the execution of M. Rostkowski's murderers. The remains of the murdered consul were taken by the Russian civil and military authorities attended the ceremony. The ship sailed for Odessa.

Fighting Near Adrianople.

SOFIA, Aug. 23.—From eastern Adrianople come reports of more fighting which so far appears to be resulting chiefly in favor of the revolutionaries. Many villages have been burned and their inhabitants have taken refuge across the Bulgarian frontier.

After a long fight at Stolovo the insurgents defeated a detachment of Turkish troops, which lost twenty killed and wounded. At Chanaszka, near Sarajivovo, the insurgents are reported to have annihilated an entire Turkish regiment. At Bulanzera, near Terzovo, seventy-five revolutionaries are credited with defeating the Turkish battalion. The villages of Andermis and Enrik, near Vasilko, have been burned to the ground.

The Turks have bombarded and destroyed the monastery of Constantine, near Losengrad, where fifty insurgents had fortified themselves. The villages of Bakdiki, Kanakara, Evers, Dingis and Brunera have all been burned in their inhabitants have fled. The large village of Drumbelk near Losengrad, has been burned by Bashi-Bazouks. The villages of Buch, with 300 houses, and Rakofa, 200 houses, situated in the vilayet of Monastir, have also been burned by Turkish troops. Two hundred women and children from these villages are now begging in the streets of Monastir.

The Turkish government has organized a special corps at Monastir to try the captured insurgents. The tribunal is composed of a Turkish president, three other Turks, two Greeks and one Albanian. It will partake of the character of a criminal court and not of a court martial.

Macedonian Sympathizers Meet.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Sympathizers with Macedonia held a meeting at Hull house today and framed resolutions denouncing of the sultan's government, which they will send to President Roosevelt. The memorial to the president asks that a note be sent to all of the European powers, ex-
