More than half of the real estate men present elected to play simply with their Mices, and acted as interrupters, inter ferers and incompetents during the entire game. A gentleman who watched the sports from a house about a block away declared that he thought they were acting the part of idiots, imbeciles, and in ebriates, but on being questioned closely admitted that he had dyspepsia.

Captains Choose Sides.

The fun was started by Willie Shrive and Willie Gates, each selecting eight other boys for a "side." Willie Shriver had first choice and said he liked the fat boys best so he took Willie Ure, Eddie Stoltenberg, Johnnie Frenzer, By Hastings, Willia Thomas, Bertle Parmales and Hen Dailey for his side. Willie Gates said he would take the lean boys so he picked out Frankie Haskell, Blakey McKitrick Stanny Bostwick, Freddy Wead, Eddle Slater, Nate Dodge, Johnny Robbins and Joe Piper for his side.

Willie Shriver slipped Bertle Parmalee into his side when Willte Gates was not looking, for Bertie is not a real estate man at all, but a newspaper man. Willie Gates was game all the way through and did not roar at all, even when Bertie ran around all the stations four times, which was once more than any of the real estate men. Dave Patterson was selected to keep a record of the sports, and so that everything would be regular Assistant Secretary Jones of the Young Men's Christian association, was selected as referee, and Lew Sholes was delegated to assist him

Eddle and Willia were Haskell whole lot better than Blakey and McKitrick Frankie. Lon Tukey, Ras Benson, Georgie Bostwick Wead Wallace, Willie Green, Georgie Holbrook wallace, Willie Green, Georgie Holbrook Gates and some of the other boys who played Slater with their voices said it was because they had the biggest boys to back them up and had Bertie Parmelee on their side.

Willie Green Causes Trouble.

Willie Green also made some trouble, because he wanted them to throw the ball around to the different stations-there were three stations-after the boy that hit it, and said if they did not do that they could not make the boy quit playing. Lou Tukey said that was not the way they used to play down in the state of Maine, but Willie Green said he had three ribe broken the last time he played, so he ought to know. But Mr. Jones, the referee, said it. was all right to throw the ball any old way, and that it did not put a man out if the ball hit him when he was running between the stations. At first all of the boys were trying to hit the hoys who were running, but Mr. Jones said they must try throw the balls to the boys at the stations and let them touch the other boys with it. Willie Ure and Ernie Sweet, who took Hen Dailey's place, and some of the other boys would fall down in the dust when they were running and trying to get to the stations, so that they will have to get some new clothes. And some of the boys ob jected to quitting trying to hit the ball when Mr. Jones told them to, because the boys who played only with their voices told them to keep on. But Mr. Jones would make them guit just the same. Tomm; Hazen played for Stanney Botwick the last few rounds because Stanny stepped on his hand when he was running around and could not play any more. Dave Patterson gave all of them these good and bad marks:

The Tri-City Driving club held a well attended meeting at the offices of Floyd J. Campbell last night to arrange for the matinee at which Cresceus, the world's champion trotting stallion, 2:03% is to ap-pear, on Saturday, September 19. A com-mittee, composed of F. A. Nash, T. C. Byrne, C. C. Kendall, Charles Creighton and Floyd J. Campbell, was appointed to arrange for the ordering of the events of the matinee. As arranged for at present, the events will include races in two classes of the matinee horses and competitive classes in children's saddle ponies, sente-men's runnbouts, matched teams hitched to station wagons and, perhaps, ladles' saddle horses. The latter competitions are something entirely new to local horse-lovers and bor-der somewhat upon the horse show, as the points in the contest are based entirely upon the appearance of she horses and the trappings. The classes have been kept down to a small number in order that the entry list may be as large as possible in the different classes. The results of the competition are expected to give an indi-cation as to the spirit with which Omahans take hold of the idea of a horse show next tal and everything will be done to stimu-iate interest in this part of the program. The apport of the committee on the track showed that the work and the money spirit has been shortened so that it is exactly one-half mile in length and its surface fan in better condition than ever before and it will be bettered even more before Cres-ces. Special trainers travel with the fa-mous trotter and one of them sleeps in the stall with him each night. According to the contract Cresceus will trot an exhibition mile on Saturday. English Yachtsmen Are Anxious for a Series of Five Races Between the Boats with the Crews Exchanged. NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—For the first time in the history of America's cup contest a race has been postponed on account of too much wind.

Today the third of the present series of aces was to have been sailed. Following the futile attempt of Thursday, when there was not enough wind to complete the race within the time limit, it was earnestly hoped by yachtsmen that today's contest

The nours after Thurshay's drifting fail-ure a storm broke over the course and raged about Sandy Hook. The water was tumbled into waves that troubled even an ocean liner. The wind blew with a velocity estimated between forty and fifty miles and the rain driven before it obscured the vision beyond a mile or two. Within the sheltering bend of Sandy Hook, where the two racing yachts rode at their mooirngs, the water was compara-tively guiet this morning, while across the sandy peninsula on the ocean side the surf boomed as it broke upon the beach. At 7 o'clock the regatta committee met at their New York Yacht club house and decided to postpone the race for the day. The meeting was then adjourned until 1 p. m., when a decision as to a race was reached. In the meantime a tug was sent to Sandy Hook to secure the feeling of Mr. Iselin and Sir Thomas Lipton in the matter and upon the return of the tug definite action was taken.

Sentenced to Death.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 29 .- Judge Robbins this afternoon formally overruled a motion for the granting of a new trial to Caleb Powers, convicted for the third time of complicity in the Goebel conspiracy, and sentenced him to be hanged. After a declaration of the prisoner: "I am not guilty, judge," the court fixed November 25 next as the day for the execution. The attorneys for the defendant secured the granting of an appeal and if unsuccessful they may try to get the United States supreme court to take it under consideration. Powers was the coolest man in the court room when the verdict was read and the sentence pronounced.

He was immediately removed to the Scott county fail, to be held there pending the appeal of his case to the higher courts. Powers refused to say anything after the rendition of sentence, except that he said all that he cared to say in his speech to the jury.

A telegram from Indianapolis states that ex-Governor W. S. Taylor said: "This verdict affects me very much. I cannot say a word."

The Omaha players who went to Atchison to contest in the Missouri Valley Tennis tournament last week did not bring back any prizes, but they came back filled with good words for the Kansas men, who spared no efforts, they declare, in making the tournament an ejoyable one for every-one. The entry list was larger than that of the tournament here the previous week, but did not rank as high in character of play probably. Art Scribner went out in his second match before Fred Eberhardt. Conrad Young was unfortunate in being called home after he had played down to the third round and was practically as-sured of a place in the semi-finals where he would have met Fred Eberhardt. Be-cause of Young's withdrawal Scribner was unable to continue in the doubles and so returned home also. On his previous trials he escaped with a sontence of life imprisonment. All three of the trials were held at Georgetown and in each of them he had the assistance of the most able lawyers who could be procured.
