Omaha Business

SUPERIORITY POINTS

OF THE

OMAHA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

AVERAGE BUSINESS OVER THE COLLEGE

1.-It is the cidest, largest, most popular and best equipped in the state. 2.—It has the choicest location, the largest, best lighted and ventilated rooms and the largest number of departments.

8.—Its faculty is composed of specialists. Most of them have been with the Omaha Commercial college from ten to fifteen years. Their long experience makes them efficient. No school can be successful which employs amateur teachers for a few months and then discharges them as soon as able to command a reasonable salary.

4.—The Omaha Commercial college is operated upon a broad foundation. It is the only business college in Nebraska which maintains a Board of Trade in connection with its actual business department. This unique feature, which contributes so largely to the popularity and efficiency of our business department, is original with the Omaha Commercial college. In selecting a school you should carefully consider the importance of such a superior advantage. This, however, is not the only feature of interest and value in connection with the distinctive superiority of the school, as compared with others. The college orchestra, literary society, literary and musical entertainments, school of law department of clocution, mock trials, athletic contests and a symnassium, fully equipped, including shower bath, should not be overlooked, for they contribute largely to the welfare of each and every student. In selecting a school, select one having all these advantages. nis school gives thorough instruction in an ecommercial branches and in shorthand and typewriting. No "slipshed" work done here. You may attend the Omaha Busi-with your work you may pay the regular rates from the time of entrance. If not satisfied, the month costs you nothing. A visit to the OMAHA BUSINESS UNI-

7.—It is the only school in Omaha employing an expert penman. Prof. Lampman, principal of our penmanship department, has but few equals and no superior. In addition to Prof. Lampman, every teacher employed in the college is far more skilled as a penman than the average advertised expert.

8.—The business men of Omaha employ our students by the score and by the hundred each year. They know where to obtain high class bookkeepers, stenographers and telegraph operators. As a "Rod of Positions" is to a '(Back) Yard of Positions," so is the demand for our students to the demand for students of other schools.

9.—Our shorthand and typewriting departments, like all others, are progressive and strictly up-to-date. Our system of anorthand is not of antediuvian origin nor a relic of the Dark Ages. It is not so difficult to write and read as the inscriptions on the Pyramids of Egypt. Unlike all the Pitmanic systems, it is not encumbered with many shades, positions, slants and arbitrary wordsigns. It is easy to learn, easy to write, easy to read, and is unexcelled for speed. Before the average student of Pitman shorthand would have mastered the principals, the student of Mosher shorthand, by the same study, would be able to write new matter at a high rate of speed. If you were going to buy a sewing machine would you select the imperfect model of fifty years ago, or would you buy one having all the latest improvements? If you were going to buy a bloycle, would you buy the old-fashioned high wheel, or a modern safety with a coaster brake? If you were going to buy a typewriter, would you select an old model or would you select the latest and most improved? As you would answer these questions, you should answer the question, shall I learn a system of shorthand invented over fifty years ago and encumbered with shades, positions, alants and arbitrary word-signs, or shall you learn a system based upon modern ideas? It will pay you to investigate Mosher shorthand. We believe it to be the best ever devised. WANTED—Clerks and others with common school educations only, who wish to qualify for ready positions at $25 a week and over, to write for free copy of my new prospectus, and endorsements from leading concerns everywhere. One graduate fills $8,000 place; another $6,000, and any number earn $1,500.

The best clothing ad writer in New York owes his success within a few months to my teachings; demand exceeds supply. George H. Powell, advertising and business expert, 1156 Temple Court, New York.
