(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Aug. 31. - (Special.) - Lincoln druggists are to be prosecuted for violating the excise laws in that many of the fancy drinks they sell are nothing more than a regulation "high ball," "gin fizz," or something equally as inebriating as well, as cheering. Complaints are being prepared this afternoon, and the result will be the arrest of a majority of the druggists of the city.

For some time the police have been in possession of information that the druggists were violating the law, and that it was possible by use of the "wink" to secure whisky straight, or with sugar and a little water, and even possible for the thirsty to secure a co'd bottle of beer without even the label being torn off. Heretofore, however, the officers have not been able to get the information in shape that it would make sufficient evidence to secure convictions, hence they kept quiet A few days ago Detectives Bentley and Mitchell were assigned to the case, with the result that they claim to have the evidence that will put nearly every druggist worker, and his long experience not only selling soda water in conflict with the law. in National Guard work, but his two years For the present the officers refuse to give in the Philippines, has worked to great out the names against whom complaints are to be filed.
