were up %c and December %25%c. Provi-sions were firm at an advance of from 2%c to 10c. From nearly every section of the north-west came acvices of a distinctly unfavor-able character regarding weather and cross. Added to these were the influences of strong foreign markets and small receipts, all resulting in an urgent demand from commission houses and shorts. There was no selling pressure until top prices were reached-s2c for September, after starting at 59% 290%c, and with December up to 83%c from the opening at 52052%c. At that point there was no apparent weakness. The close showed a net gain for September of 1c, at bl $560%c. Outside markets were strong with an improved cash de-mand. Trading was very heavy, with De-cember business leading. Clearances of wheat and four were equal to 30,500 bu.
