Vice President Paul Morton of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe declared that in his judgment the present rates on live stock in Kansas were as high as the traffic would bear

Manifestly the orderly retreat of the traffic managers and attorneys of the railroads operating in Kansas was inspired by the apprehension that the Kansas Railroad commission would rule against them as it was by the conviction that the live stock industry of Kansas would be seriously crippled by raising the rate

ETHELLE LENNON, IN BOSTON GLOBE.

"T'WAS ONLY A CHILD WITH QUIVERING LIP, O'er a broken dish she had let slip. But the look of fear in those sweet blue eyes. Filled my heart with a sad surprise. Not much more than a baby she. Surely not more than six could be. Her heart should be light and free as air. Not even a thought should she know of care. But she looked at the pieces with shrinking dread. Tears in her eyes and a drooping head. I lifted her up and said: 'Why cry? We'll get a new one, you see, and I'll give you one, too, if it will do right.' But I could not banish that look of fright. 'Mamma will whip me,' she whispered low. 'And I tried so hard to be careful, you know.' She said I am naughty and careless and bad. And she loves little sister, not me." How came the words of grief from that baby's mouth? I could feel the tears from my own eyes start.
