WANTED-MALE HELP.

WANTED-MALE HELP A HUNDRED NEW STUDENTS

AT THE

OMAHA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

17TH AND DOUGLAS STREETS.

In a single week, once again proclaims to the world a prestige and popularity, envied by all, but equaled by none. It is a recognition of superior merit for which we are deeply grateful. The coming week will add a large number to the already unprecedented enrollment. Truly "The O. C. C. Leads, Others Follow."

REASONS WHY.

Entered this week for the fall term and as many more Best location.
 Best quarters and equipments.
 Best instructors and courses of study.
 Best system of Shorthand and Typewriting.
 Best expert penman and teacher.
 Best Board of Trade, Literary, Society, Actual Business Department, Lecture Course, College Orchestra, Telegraph School, Law School, Night School School of Elecution, Foot Ball Team and Gymnasium.
 Everything incomparably the best.

POINTERS.

No. 1. The old fogy systems of Shorthand-Pitman, Graham and Munson-we have, without consideration or even commiseration, bequeathed to our antiditurian followers, who spirit of progress savors of that of the dark ages, when the mind of man was dominated by prejudice, ignorance, and superstition. The demands of the hour are for stenographers who are alert, progressive and of the latest automobile type. We turn out that kind, by teaching them a modernized system of Shorthand, called the Mosher. It is becoming popular all over the country. It is simple, legible and rapid. It would be a spiendid "soothing syrup" for those who have been advised to multiply their sorrows by trying to master the shades, positions, slants, rules, exceptions to rules, and word signs of Pitman, Graham, or Munson, systems which have not been improved for more than forty years.

No. 2. .ew classes tomorrow in all departments. Night School tomorrow night. Our Gymnasium open day and night. Two more Foot Ball players wanted. Shorthand lessons by mail. Visitors welcome now. Catalogue free.
