ANYONE IS AT LIBERTY TO INVESTIGATE

State Fair Exhibits All in Place and Ready for the Reception of Visitors Bright and Early Monday Morning.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 5 .- (Special.) - The charity organization will not name the board of directors of the Tabitha home as announced this morning. Rev. Heiner will continue to conduct the home as he has in the past and he will do so without the aid or consent of the charity organization.

After a meeting of the charity commit- terday. tee Rev. Heiner and his board of directors yesterday evening it was announced by a member of the investigating committee that Rev. Heiner had agreed to allow the committee to approve a board of twenty members to be selected by him for the future management of the home.

This morning Rev. Heiner said he had decided after consultation with his attorneys to tell the charity organization to mind its own business and he would not I have helped take care of it for several allow it to meddle with his so far as ap- | years. Rev. Heiner said the charity committee made him a proposition that if he would allow its members to name a board of directors to control the home, keeping him as superintendent, they would not publish the report of their investigation. He said he agreed to consult his attorney and then give them an answer later. Before consulting the attorney Mr. Heiner began to think that the charity association had no right to run his business. Then visions of losing his home and seeing the charity association conducting it was too much for him and before seeing the lawyer he had about concluded to tell the charity organization to mind its own business.

Maud Lewis, whose neighbors claimed had been so mistreated, testified before the board that she was well fed, well clothed and well cared for while in the home. Her neighbors said Maud's body was bent and curved, due to her hard work in the home. The truth is that we took the girl when an infant. She was born with a curved spine and her body was always bent. She ran away from us, so she testified before the committee, because some of her friends had left the home and that made her lonesome and dissatisfied. Since that time she has visited us three times and recently she gave Mrs. Heiner a present upon the occasion of her birthday. by People. WINCHESTER, Ky., Sept. 5 .- About 8,000 sople attended the opening of the democratic state campaign here today. Governor Beckham held an informal reception during the forenoon. In the afternoon the governor spoke for an hour and twenty minutes and was followed by Senator Blackburn and Senator McCreary. On account of rain the speaking was then adjourned to the opera house, where Colonel Harry Weissinger and Congressman Ollie James spoke.

Campaign to Be Aggressive.

Governor Beckham said in part: I intend that the contest shall be an aggressive, not a defensive, one; that the people shall be thoroughly acquainted with the issues involved and that in the full light of public view the democratic party, the issues involved and that in the full light of public view the democratic party, willingly, and the republican party, un-willingly, must stand upon their respective records and let the people judge between them.

This is the policy which we seek, which we demand, and we intend to drag our reluctant adversaries from the dark recesses of a "gum shoe" campaign and make them fight us, if they will, in the open light of day. light of day.

While they seem to have determined upon a quiet and secret campaign, relying upon the power of a big corruption fund and hoping that the democrats may be lulied into a sense of overconfidence, we are determined to compel them to stand up and assume entire responsibility for the evil record they have made in this state.
