

GOSSIP OF THE POLITICIANS

Chairman Bartlett of the Republican Judiciary Committee Sides Up Situation. STRANGE BRAND OF NONPARTISANSHIP Hope by Making Jumbled Mass of Nominations for District Bench to Secure One or Two Places on It.

Chairman E. M. Bartlett of the republican judiciary committee expressed himself as well satisfied yesterday morning with the outlook for republican success, and as not at all surprised at the manner in which the populists at their "mass meeting" had endeavored to fuse with the democrats and at the same time slip in one or two straight populists on the ticket.

Formerly Opposed Nonpartisanism. "It will be remembered that in 1901 the democrats, having a majority in the district, refused to co-operate with the republicans in an effort to agree upon a non-partisan judicial ticket but now, when conditions are changed and the republicans are in a majority, the color of their glasses have changed, and these democrats now see through pure white lenses that a nonpartisan judiciary is the greatest blessing that can befall humanity in general."

Improvement on Last Ticket. "It is difficult to understand how non-partisanism can be evolved out of so strenuous a fight, where democrats were opposed to republicans in the meeting. The very fact that the democrats have conceded a majority of republicans on their judicial ticket and only nominated two democrats in itself a concession to the wisdom of the republican party. The bar candidates, with the exception of Page and Ferguson, are judges whose terms expire next January. It is true that Judge Dickinson and Reed failed of re-nomination at the hands of the republicans, and it is fair to presume that the republicans had in mind an improvement upon the bench. They renominated Baxter, Day and Estelle, and substituted for Dickinson, Reed, Fawcett and Shabazz the names of such well known and honorable gentlemen as Redick, Sears, Sutton and Troup. The democrats certainly did not criticize Day, Estelle and Baxter, and they must concede that the other gentlemen nominated by the republicans are upright, able men. The republicans have a feeling that they improve upon the methods of the democrats. This feeling is occasioned from the fact that democracy is always in the wake of republicanism occupying positions the republicans have plotted and improved upon. This is shown by their taking up men who have been discarded by the republican party. It goes without saying that the republican judicial ticket is an improvement upon the last republican judicial ticket."

The populists occupy as amusing a position as the democrats. They, too, have met, and nominated only six candidates to war the judicial ermine. For some reason they have left one place vacant, and amongst all of the members of the bar they picked up the four candidates favored exclusively by the democrats. Hon. Geo. W. Dounis has always been known as a partisan democrat, and has taken interest in campaigns and spoken from the stump

FOR THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY, and John O. Yester stands at the tail of the ticket as an exclamation point."

The big sixth ward is to open the fall campaign Friday night with a meeting of the ward republican club in Lincoln hall, at Twenty-fourth and Burdette streets. All candidates have been invited to attend and make speeches and a full program of talks is promised. The workers are making unusual efforts to get out the crowd.

These additional fillings, by candidates for republican nominations, have been made with Secretary Messick: Clerk District Court—W. W. Bingham, A. H. Comstock. County Surveyor—Peter A. Edquist. County Commissioner, First District—L. G. Hutton. Justice of the Peace—Eben K. Long. Constable—William P. Snowden, Charles W. King, Dundas.

District Court Clerk Broadwell is figuring on having a walk-a-way in the democratic county convention for a renomination. County Treasurer Elanzer is not eligible for another term but expects the democratic nomination for county assessor.

First Mid-Week Opening. New Krug Theater to Have Two Attractions Every Week Hereafter.

Tonight the management of the new Krug theater begins its policy of giving two attractions each week, and this policy will obtain for the balance of the season. "We had Sweet Clover" the opening attraction, for a full week," said Manager Gordon, "and this fact has led many people to believe that there was to be but one attraction a week at the new theater. The bookings are all made, however, for half-weekly stands, and hereafter one show opens with the Sunday matinee and plays to Wednesday night, and then, opening Thursday night, comes the attraction for the balance of the week. The first mid-week change is tonight when 'A Little Outcast,' which arrived this morning with over thirty people and two carloads of scenery, opens for the balance of the week."

HYMENEAL. Reiter-Lang.

Metropolitan club was gay yesterday evening, chandeliers hung with the graceful smilax, flowers here and there where they could appear, in the banquet hall the silver and glass of the club laid waiting and in the parlors ladies and gentlemen, the former in the bright beauty of festivity, the latter in the sober changing black and white in which many must go to all manner of evening places. At 6:35 o'clock the orchestra, under Hutter, broke into the wedding march of Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream." The contracting parties, preceded by the four ushers and accompanied by the best man and matron of honor, came down the stairs and into the parlors, where, accompanied by soft music, Rabbi Simon raised his voice in the wedding ceremony.

After the ceremony the sixty guests sat at a splendid dining table in the banquet hall of the club and were busy until a late hour with the manner of speech and action which best suited the occasion. Among the guests were some from out of town, the furthest coming perhaps being Miss Well of Savannah, Ga. Mr. and Mrs. Reiter left last night for Kansas City, while Mr. and Mrs. Fricks, Dr. Roy Dodge, Ed Westcott and Will Ramsey, and the maids of honor Ella Ruffner, Lena Fricks, Bertha Richey and Julia Karsten of Nebraska City. The wedding party was accompanied by the ribbon bearers Helen Gass and Carl Harnerberger. Mrs. E. A. Wiggemore led the procession and sang the Lohengrin wedding march, with Miss Antonia Kessler presiding at the organ. The church was beautifully decorated with clematis. Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. A. and H. A. Wiggemore, the Misses Selma, Dora and Eugenia Wiggemore and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harnerberger, all of Ashland. Miss Paula Geunther, Kansas City, and Russell Harris, Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Fricks departed on the evening Burlington train for Chicago, and from there on the lake to Watertown, Wis. They will be home to their friends in this city after November 1.

Wiles-Spangler. AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Queen's Ordinance is Intended to Be Righteously Observed. AUTHOR TALKS OF MEASURE'S NEED Will Not Work Hardship on Company and Will Protect People Who Have to Use the Street.

Councilman W. H. Queenan stated last evening that so far as he is concerned the ordinance introduced by him on Tuesday night providing for the stopping of cars being run on the Missouri avenue and Alhambra streets, which is being put in place of duty, is not intended to force the car companies to place extra men upon these cars, but simply to have fares collected before the cars start.

A wrong impression seems to have gained headway," said Mr. Queenan, "that the council is desirous of compelling the company to add a conductor to the list of employees. I realize that these lines are being run more or less as an accommodation to those residing in the out-districts, and the company, so far as these separate lines are concerned, may not be able to afford two men to a car. But it can well afford to take this little precaution against injury to pedestrians or other travelers, and I believe will not object to such a regulation. Whether or not it is material, for that matter, as the ordinance will be lived up to, if it passes."

No Plans for High School. The Board of Education failed to let contract or plans for the proposed new high school last evening, and no reason was assigned for its not being done. Superintendent McLean called the attention of the board to the fact that the condition of the schools is deplorable.

The superintendent's report is interesting. He stated that during the year ending September 30, 42 pupils over this time last year, and seventy-three of this number are in the high school. The average number of pupils to the rooms of the city is forty, which makes a crowded condition of things in general. The superintendent estimated that even satisfactory work can not be expected of the teachers so long as matters remain as they now are.

She Spent His Money. William Brown, 1425 Cumine street, complained to the police last night that he had lost $5 in the resort at 1107 Capitol avenue Tuesday evening. Louis Cohen, who lives at 1107 Capitol avenue, was arrested, charged with taking the money. She did not give it up, as she had spent it.

Local Brevities. Rolla Williams, an 18-year-old boy from Kansas City, is held at the police station on the charge of being a suspicious character.

Personal Paragraphs. J. T. Calahan, general western passenger agent for the Nickel Fleet, is in the city on business.

ENGLISH FILES THE CHARGE

County Attorney Prefers Murder in Second Degree Against Charles Ellsworth.

County Attorney English yesterday afternoon filed complaint in the county court charging Charles Ellsworth with murder of David Houser in the second degree. Complaint was prepared early in the morning, but the question of where the altercation took place was raised and was referred to Chief of Detectives Dunn and Assistant City Engineer Craig to look up. They visited the place, returning in the afternoon, and reported that the place where the young men fought was east of the city boundary line. The knife with which Ellsworth stabbed Houser has not yet been found, but the police are still looking for it and hope to find it eventually.

The Stricken Rose from Grief. What a fortunate provision of nature it is that deprives the rose of mental suffering, for how poignant would be his grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, and permits the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send for in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Before YOU go home "Just get The Delineator" THE OCTOBER NUMBER, now on the news-stands, answers squarely the question of supremacy among the magazines for woman and the home. In your selection of a magazine you may choose from two classes—those you need and those you read for recreation—or else you take THE DELINEATOR and combine both. If the word "necessary" is susceptible of a superlative, THE DELINEATOR is beyond all question the "most necessary" of all the magazines published for woman. Nine hundred thousand families proved this to be so last month; and each month brings its new thousands of members into the ever-growing DELINEATOR FAMILY. Among the fashions it is the "most necessary" because it is all the fashion magazines in one, with their mistakes eliminated—their exaggerations corrected, and the really successful novelties stamped with the seal of authoritative approval—for if it is pictured in THE DELINEATOR it is "good form." It is equally the "most necessary" in the Nursery—in the Sewing-Room—in the Kitchen—throughout the whole house and out-of-doors in city and in country. The partial list of contents below can only hint at the interest underlying every line. The Evolution of a Club Woman, by Agnes Surbridge, begins in this number. It is an autobiography and is the predicted success of the year. J. C. Hemmett, the world-famed camera expert, begins one of the most remarkable series of photographic articles ever presented. They relate to his personal adventures at home and in foreign lands. The Silent Partner, by Lynn Roby Meekins; A Florida Cracker, by Virginia Frazer Boyle, are prominent among the fiction features, while the departments are fuller than usual of the good things, with special interest centering in the children's page. If the "most necessary" of the magazines for woman is that one which helps most in every hour of "her" day and brings its after-hour of fascinating leisure-reading when the day is over, then, surely, "JUST GET THE DELINEATOR." CHEAP LIGHTS IN HOUSES Reduction to Private Consumers Principal Point to Real Estate Exchange. NASH PROPOSITION IS GIVEN AN AIRING R. W. Richardson Addresses Exchange on Good Roads, with Particular Reference to Lack of Local Interest. The Real Estate exchange gave the greater part of its time at its last meeting to the commercial club to the hearing and discussion of the report of its lighting committee and to the hearing of an address on good roads by R. W. Richardson. The committee, which consists of J. M. Frenzer, W. G. Ure and H. L. Payne, was commended for its work and asked to continue the same. Its report is incomplete, as neither the gas nor electric light company has made a definite proposition for street lighting. In regard to the electric light company the committee found that in January, 1902, the price per street light was reduced from $14.50 to $9.50 and that the present charge contemplated was to $7. In all $2.50 per cent. It found that no reduction had been made in 1903 to private consumers and believed that none was now contemplated. It had no means of finding how Omaha charges compared with those in other cities, but the reduction in street lights made it appear that a reduction to private consumers should follow, so the committee held. No Report on Gas. In the case of the gas company the committee had not had time to make comparisons with rates in other cities. It, however, suggested to the exchange that the present time was the time for the mayor and council to take action that may result in cheaper gas and electricity to private consumers. "And we would respectfully suggest," the committee conclude, "to the Omaha Gas company and to the Omaha Electric Light and Power company that the way to win the hearts of the people is for one or the other to give private consumers due consideration." W. T. Graham wanted to know if the committee knew certainly that these companies contemplated no reduction to private consumers and was informed that the committee did not know certainly, but that nothing had been said on this point by Mr. Nash in his talk before the exchange and it had been taken for granted. Mr. Graham said that the committee should make further investigations as he knew the light company would not have the authority to make a reduction for public lights and would do the same thing for private users. W. G. Ure urged the point that the question of rates to private consumers was the most important question. It, as had been formerly urged, the electric light

Property Changes Hands. The four-story building east of the Millard hotel, at present occupied by the Nebraska Plumbing association, has been sold to the Omaha Stone Repair works for a consideration of $25,000. The property was that of Lawrence M. Galt, adding in the purchase the McGee investment company together with Wagon, Brivner & Co. completed the deal. The land has been sold to the site of a Lutheran church. The stone company will not take possession until the lease of the present occupant expires. Menden Was 'Too Tender'. Herman Menden, who conducts an oyster saloon at 101 South Thirtieth street, drank too much of his own and other people's refreshments last night and engaged in an orderly conduct in a Ninth street saloon. He was shot in the back and as he lay on the floor a loaded revolver Officer Shields thought he would be safer in jail. He was charged with being drunk and disorderly and carrying concealed weapons. Neilsen Puts Up Bond. The preliminary hearing of William Neilsen, charged with shooting George Elgel August 8 with intent to kill was concluded in Judge Berka's court yesterday afternoon. Defendant Neilsen held in the district court in bonds of $500, which were promptly furnished.
